

---

IN THE MATTER OF PAUL WOLFLE,
FORMER WORKERS' COMPENSATION EXAMINER
FOR THE NEW YORK STATE WORKERS' COMPENSATION
BOARD

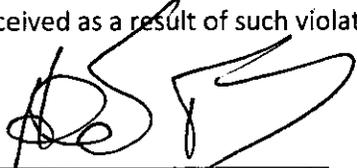

---

NOTICE OF REASONABLE CAUSE

Pursuant to Executive Law § 94(12)(b), the New York State Commission on Public Integrity ("Commission") has determined that there is reasonable cause to believe that you knowingly and intentionally violated Public Officers Law § 73(8)(a)(i) when, within two years of leaving State service, you appeared and practiced and rendered services for compensation, before the Workers' Compensation Board ("WCB"), your former agency, in that as a Senior Claims Representative for Gallagher Bassett of New York, Inc. ("Gallagher Bassett"), you submitted six (6) applications for workers' compensation insurance benefits in September, October and November 2007.

As required by law, a copy of this notice is retained by the Commission for public inspection and a copy is forwarded to WCB, your former appointing authority. Please be advised that an individual who, following a hearing, is found to have knowingly and intentionally violated the provisions of Public Officers Law § 73(8)(a)(i) shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed forty thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation.

Date: April 29, 2009

By:
Herbert Teitelbaum
Executive Director