Introduction

The New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics (“JCOPE”) has prepared this guide to assist individuals with completing the 2016 Annual Statement of Financial Disclosure, which is required by Section 73-a of the Public Officers Law. This guide is for informational purposes only and does not have the force of law. It is not a substitute for a careful reading of the relevant law, including Sections 73, 73-a, and 74 of the Public Officers Law and Section 94 of the Executive Law.

If you have questions on how to complete your Financial Disclosure Statement that are not covered by this guide, you may contact JCOPE staff by calling (800) 87-ETHICS and pressing “3” or by sending an email to ethel@jcope.ny.gov.

Who Must File

Under Section 73-a of the Public Officers Law, the following individuals (“filers”) must file an Annual Statement of Financial Disclosure (a “Statement” or “FDS”) with JCOPE:

- state officers or employees with an annual salary rate above the job rate of SG-24 ($91,821) (“threshold filers”);
- state officers or employees designated as “policy-makers” by their appointing authority;
- members of the Legislature;
- legislative employees;
- political party chairpersons representing jurisdictions with a population exceeding 300,000;
- statewide elected officials; and
- candidates for statewide elected office or for member of the Legislature.

If you work for more than one office or employer within the executive branch and your total combined annual salary rates for those jobs is more than $91,821, you must file a Statement with JCOPE. However, if you work for two different branches of government (e.g., executive and legislative) and your annual salary rate for each job does not exceed $91,821, you do not have to file a Statement. This is true even if your total combined annual salary rate is more than $91,821.

Notes: If you are an appointed state officer or employee, you may have submitted a financial disclosure report to your appointing authority in connection with your appointment. Such disclosure is separate from your obligation to file a Statement with JCOPE. You should contact JCOPE staff to discuss your filing requirements.

If you are required to file both a Statement with JCOPE and an annual disclosure report with the New York City Conflict of Interests Board (“COIB”), please contact JCOPE staff. You may be able to satisfy your filing obligation with JCOPE by submitting your COIB filing, along with a supplemental form that captures information required by Section 73-a of the Public Officers Law, but is not required by the COIB.

Requests for Exemptions from Filing

State officers or employees who are required to file an FDS because their annual salaries are above the threshold (i.e., threshold filers) and who are not designated as policy-makers may request an exemption from filing. Agencies and unions may also request an exemption on behalf of a class of individuals in the same position.

JCOPE, at its discretion, may grant the exemption if (1) the public interest does not require disclosure, and (2) the individual's official duties do not involve:

- the negotiation, authorization, or approval of contracts, leases, franchises, revocable consents, concessions, variances, special permits, or licenses as defined in Section 73 of the Public Officers Law;
- the purchase, sale, rental or lease of real property, goods or services, or a contract therefor;
- the obtaining of grants of money or loans; or
- the adoption or repeal of any rule or regulation having the force and effect of law.

A request for an exemption from filing must be made in writing or via the FDS Online Filing System described below, and received by the Commission on or before the Statement due date. Forms and instructions are available on JCOPE's website. For more information, please see JCOPE's regulations at Title 19 NYCRR Part 935.

When are Statements Due

MAY 15, 2017

All filers—other than those deemed “Academic Filers” by the State University of New York (“SUNY”) or the City University of New York (“CUNY”)—must file by May 15, 2017. Policy-makers at SUNY or CUNY may not be designated Academic Filers and must file by May 15, 2017.

NOVEMBER 15, 2017

Employees of CUNY and SUNY who have been designated “Academic Filers” must file by November 15, 2017.

WITHIN 30 DAYS OF BECOMING A FILER

State employees or officials whose annual salaries surpass the threshold or are designated policy-makers after May 15 (or November 15, in the case of Academic Filers) must file within 30 days of the change in their salary or policy-maker designation. New State employees or officials who (1) have annual salaries above the threshold or are designated policy-makers, and (2) commence employment after May 15 (or November 15, in the case of Academic Filers), must file within 30 days of hire.

Note: Members of the Legislature, legislative employees, and candidates for the Legislature should refer to the Legislative Ethics Commission for filing deadlines and procedures.

Requests for Extension of Time to File

Justifiable Cause or Undue Hardship

If there are significant circumstances that prevent you from filing your Statement by the due date, you may request a 45-day extension of time to file on the basis of justifiable cause or undue hardship. Justifiable cause or undue hardship does not include prescheduled or voluntary absences such as vacations. A request for an extension does not automatically extend your time to file by 45 days; you will be notified by JCOPE after your request has been reviewed.

A request for an extension must be made in writing or via the FDS Online Filing System, and received by JCOPE on or before the Statement due date. Forms and instructions are available on JCOPE's website. For more information, please see JCOPE's regulations at Title 19 NYCRR Part 936.

Internal Revenue Service Automatic Extension of Time

If you have applied for an automatic extension of time to file your individual income tax return with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") and are missing information requested by the Statement because of your IRS extension, you may request an extension of time to file your complete Statement.

However, you must still file a partial Statement containing all of the other requested information by the Statement due date, along with a copy of your IRS application for an automatic extension of time, and a written statement describing the information that is missing from your Statement because of your IRS extension.

You must file a Supplementary Statement with all of the remaining information within 7 days after your IRS extension expires.

A request for an IRS extension must be made in writing or via the FDS Online Filing System, and received by JCOPE on or before the Statement due date. Forms and instructions are available on JCOPE's website. For more information, please see JCOPE's regulations at Title 19 NYCRR Part 936.

How to File

Electronic Filing

JCOPE encourages you to file electronically through the FDS Online Filing System, which is available through the JCOPE website. If you have questions on how to access the online filing system, please consult the Quick Reference Guide to the FDS Online Filing System located at Appendix A to this guide. The advantages of filing online include:

- You can prepopulate your Statement with information from the prior year's Statement.

- You can save your Statements and access them online.
- You can print a “receipt” showing that your Statement was filed electronically.

Paper Filing

You may also file a paper Statement. Paper copies of the Statement are available in JCOPE’s Albany office. In addition, a fillable PDF version of the Statement is available on JCOPE’s website. The PDF version can be completed by hand or typed using your computer and printed out. If you file a paper Statement:

- Your Statement must be legible and contain an original signature. If you are completing the Statement by hand, you must use ink. Statements that are illegible, completed in pencil, or are missing an original signature will be returned, and your Statement will be deemed not filed.
- You must provide your home address on the last page of the Statement.
- You must mail or deliver the original signed Statement to JCOPE’s Albany office. Photocopies, faxes, and emails will not be accepted.
- Your Statement must be received or postmarked on or before the Statement due date to be considered on time.

Public Inspection of Statements

Under the Public Officers Law, the Statements of elected officials are available on JCOPE’s website. All other Statements are available upon written request to JCOPE. The names of unemancipated children and filers’ home addresses are automatically redacted from copies of Statements made available for public inspection.

Requests for Redaction and Exemption from Disclosing Certain Information

Redaction of Information from Public Inspection

You may request redaction of specific information from the copy of your Statement made available for public inspection. Forms and instructions are available on JCOPE’s website. A request for redaction can also be made via the online filing system. JCOPE, at its discretion, may grant the request if the information you are seeking to redact has no material bearing on the discharge of your official duties.

Exemption from Disclosing Information Pertaining to Spouse and/or Unemancipated Child

You may request an exemption from disclosing specific information pertaining to your spouse and/or unemancipated children. Forms and instructions are available on JCOPE’s website. JCOPE, at its discretion, may grant the request if (1) your spouse, on his or her own behalf or on behalf of an unemancipated child, objects to the disclosure of such information, and (2) the information has no material bearing on the discharge of your official duties.

Exemption from Disclosing Client Information

You may request an exemption from disclosing certain information pertaining to your clients, including the identity of a client and work on an initial public offering, in response to Questions 8(b-1), 8(b-2), and 8(c) of the Statement. Such requests may be made to JCOPE or to the Office of Court Administration (“OCA”). For more information, please see JCOPE’s website and regulations at Title 19 NYCRR Part 942, and OCA’s website at <https://www.nycourts.gov/rules/disclosure-exemption-IPO-report-POL73a/>.

Violations and Penalties

If you fail to file a Statement, or you file a Statement that is unclear, incomplete, or appears to be deficient, JCOPE will send you a written notice and provide you with an opportunity to submit or amend your Statement. If you fail to comply, JCOPE will send you and your appointing authority a notice of delinquency that advises you of fees and penalties for the failure to file.

If, following the notice of delinquency, you knowingly and willfully fail to file a Statement, or knowingly and willfully with intent to deceive file a false Statement, you may be subject to a civil penalty up to $40,000 after a hearing. In lieu of or in addition to such penalty, JCOPE may refer a violation to the appropriate prosecutor for criminal prosecution as a misdemeanor offense. If convicted, you may be punished with up to one year of imprisonment.

Your appointing authority may also take disciplinary action against you for failing to file a Statement or filing a false Statement.

General Guidance

Answer each question with respect to calendar year 2016, unless another period or date is specified.

Answer each question completely. Do not leave any response blank. For those questions that do not apply to you or for which you have no information to report, please indicate “N/A” or “none.”

If two or more questions require the same response or information, you may reference one response in the other question, so long as the response provides all information that is required by both questions.

When reporting “income” in response to a question, the term “income” means aggregate net income before taxes.

When reporting a value or amount in response to a question, use the categories from either Table I or Table II, as specified in the question. Indicate the category by letter only. You do not need to report the actual dollar amount.

You may attach additional pages to your Statement if you need more space. Each additional page should include: (1) your name; (2) the question number; and (3) the remainder of your answer.

A Reference List indicating where to report specific items on your Statement can be found at the end of this Guide.

The disclosure requirement in questions (b-1) and (b-2) shall not require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to matters in which the client’s name is required by law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters in which the reporting individual represents or provides services to minors, the client’s name may be replaced with initials. Upon such time that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer restricted by professional disciplinary rules, federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure requirements in questions (b-1) and (b-2). The office of court administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and confidentially stored. In making its determination, the joint commission or the office of court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how significant the interests is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

The office of court administration shall issue its final determination within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding. Self/Spouse	Issuing Entity	Type of Security	Percentage of corporate owned or controlled (if more than 5% of publicly traded stock, or more than 10% if stock not publicly traded, is held)	Category of Market Value as of the close of the taxable year last occurring prior to the filing of this statement (In Table II)

This question requires you to report securities and investments held by you, your spouse, or a corporation of which you or your spouse own or control more than 50% of the stock at the close of business on December 31, 2016, when the fair market value or amount of the investment at the end of the tax year is more than $1,000. You must list:

- The name of the issuing entity (corporation, fund name, etc.);
- The type of investment;
- Percentage of ownership, if you or your spouse hold more than 5% of a publicly traded stock or 10% of a stock that is not publicly traded;
 - If you or your spouse hold less than the above percentages, you must report the security but are not required to report the percentage.
- The category of market value as of the close of the taxable year.

You may aggregate all similar types of securities from the same issuing entity and report the total value. For example, multiple bonds from the same issuing entity can be reported in the aggregate.

WHAT TO REPORT:

- Stocks.
- Certificates of deposit, bonds, notes, warrants, treasury notes and zero coupon bonds. You do not need to list the serial number, issue year, or type of any bonds, if you indicate the issuing entity and the aggregate value of all bonds from that entity.

- Mutual funds and investment funds. This includes such funds held through an Individual Retirement Account (IRA). List a fund even if you reported it in response to Question 11. You do not need to list the individual securities held by the fund.
- For partnerships and investment clubs, list those securities where your or your spouse’s name appears on the security document or certificate.
- Mortgages.
- Obligations, investment interests in partnerships, and those debt instruments and certificates of interest which are usually referred to as securities.
- Securities held for your benefit by a brokerage firm or nominee.

If you need guidance on whether interests in more specialized security transactions (e.g., margin accounts) are reportable, contact JCOPE for advice.
