INSTRUCTIONS

General Instructions for State Employees (excludes Academic employees of SUNY and CUNY - please see page 2 of Instructions)

- Make sure your official job specification is attached. If unavailable, attach your most recent performance evaluation.
- Forward a copy of this form to your appointing authority.
- Note that effective April 1, 2017, the filing rate is $91,821.
- An exemption request must be post-marked no later than May 15, 2017 for this Financial Disclosure Statement. Individuals commencing State service after May 15, 2017 or who receive a job title change or a salary increase which exceeds the filing rate, may apply for an exemption within 30 days of such event.
- You are not eligible to apply for an exemption if you have been designated a policy-maker by your appointing authority.
- If you have been previously denied an exemption while serving in your current job title/agency, you must include new supporting documentation of changed circumstances.

You need not apply if:

- You previously received an exemption and are in the same title/agency;
- You are currently serving in an exempt title.

You may also apply electronically by logging-in to your online account at www.jcope.ny.gov. Please be sure to upload your official agency job description or most recent performance evaluation.

General Instructions for Academic Employees of SUNY and CUNY

- An academic employee must submit a recent annual report or a self-prepared written description of duties, either of which must include whether or not the individual is involved in:
 - Purchasing or contracting activities;
 - Administrative duties such as chair or director of a department or program; and
 - Whether he/she receives externally funded grants.
- Academic employees of SUNY and CUNY are not required to file a copy of the exemption form with their campus.
- For academic filers, an exemption request must be post-marked no later than November 15, 2017 for this Financial Disclosure Statement.

You need not apply if:

- You previously received an exemption and you have the same academic title and duties, and you are not engaged in externally funded grant activities.

You must re-apply if:

- You received an exemption and have since been engaged in grant activities, have been serving as a department chair, or have been involved in purchasing or contracting activities.

You may also apply electronically by logging-in to your online account at www.jcope.ny.gov. Please be sure to upload either a recent annual report or a self-prepared written description of duties.
