MUNICIPALITIES SUBJECT TO THE NEW YORK STATE LOBBYING ACT

The reporting requirements set forth in Legislative Law Article 1-A (the New York State "Lobbying Act") apply to entities lobbying municipalities. As of April 13, 2015, the definition of municipality in the Lobbying Act has been expanded to include:

1) any county, city, village, town, or special district with a population exceeding 5,000;
2) any industrial development agency ("IDA") in a jurisdictional subdivision with a population exceeding 5,000; and
3) all school districts, local public authorities and public benefit corporations.

Thus, if a lobbyist incurs, expends or receives, or anticipates incurring, expending or receiving in excess of $5,000 annually in compensation and expenses for lobbying activities (cumulatively across all clients) before such municipality, the lobbyist and the client of the lobbyist are generally required to file disclosure reports with the Joint Commission on Public Ethics ("JCOPE"). JCOPE, in turn, makes these reports publicly available on its website.

In addition to New York City and its qualifying jurisdictional subdivisions, the "municipalities" listed on these pages below have been identified by JCOPE, through 2010 U.S. Census data, as having a population exceeding 5,000. These lists are for reference purposes only and do not contain all municipalities in which the Lobbying Act applies. It remains the responsibility of lobbyists and their clients to determine whether their activities fall under the Lobbying Act's jurisdiction.
