LOBBYING GUIDELINES REVIEW

The New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics is undertaking a review of its Lobbying Guidelines, which provide the regulated community with technical and substantive direction on how to accurately and completely report lobbying activity.

Staff is currently soliciting comments from the regulated community and the general public regarding issues or policies in the current Lobbying Guidelines that could be added, removed, clarified, or otherwise revisited. Comments should be emailed to jcope@jcope.ny.gov, to the attention of Martin Levine, Director of Audit and Review and Senior Counsel, and should include the subject line: Lobbying Guidelines. Comments will be accepted until September 5, 2014.

The current Guidelines can be accessed from the Commission website here.
