

JCOPE'S GUIDE TO LEAVING STATE SERVICE: RESTRICTIONS AND PROHIBITIONS ON NEW EMPLOYMENT

The Joint Commission on Public Ethics ("JCOPE") today issued its new "Guide to Leaving State Service: Restrictions and Prohibitions on New Employment" available now in printable format on the Commission's website and as a pamphlet. The Guide summarizes restrictions on former State Officers and Employees (excluding legislative and executive chamber staff) when taking a new job. It is meant to provide an easy to understand summary of restrictions that apply to former State Officers and Employees contained in the State Public Officers Law.

The Guide is available on the JCOPE website (jcope.ny.gov) under "Training / Library of Materials." The new Guide is for the benefit of all, so please distribute it broadly. Should you have any questions, please contact us at (518) 408-3976.
