Reform A

This proposal would amend paragraph (b) of subdivision 9-a of section 94 of the Executive Law to allow for greater public disclosure of information.
Paragraph (b) of subdivision 9-a of section 94 of the executive law is amended to read as follows:

(b) Except as otherwise required or provided by law, Unless otherwise required herein, confidential information that is obtained during the course of an investigation and which is material and not otherwise publicly available, including testimony received or any other information obtained by a commissioner or staff of the commission during the course of an investigation, shall not be disclosed by any such individual to any person or entity outside the commission during the pendency of any matter, except as authorized by the commission or in response to a court order or a subpoena lawfully issued by a federal, state or local prosecutor. Any confidential communication to any person or entity outside the commission related to the matters before the commission may occur only as authorized by the commission.
