Hi. You know, I could have sworn Darren said you guys passed this along to the DA and AG. Also, Fred Dicker just said he had the same experience. The DA's office also just called to make it clear they requested this, when they seemed oblivious earlier. And, lastly, the AG's office said they didn't think they requested anything, but will review anything sent to them. Were there crossed signals here?

Hey mike -- hope you had a nice weekend. I just saw your wire story and have one point of clarification. The DA and AG asked us for the documents. We did not refer or make the request.

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) -- Governor Eliot Spitzer today asked the state Attorney General and the Albany County District Attorney to review records that show Senate Majority Leader Joseph Bruno used state aircraft to attend Republican fundraisers in Manhattan.

Bruno says he used the aircraft for state business because of death threats. But Spitzer says Bruno never had an assessment of those threats done. Spitzer today ordered an assessment by
