PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics shall hold a hearing to determine whether a civil penalty should be assessed for your failure to file the 2010 January/June Client Semi-Annual Report as required by Legislative Law Article 1-A. This hearing is scheduled as a result of the facts and circumstances alleged in the Commission's Substantial Basis Investigation Report dated May 28, 2014, previously served upon you.

The hearing is scheduled for September 10, 2014 at 2:30 p.m., at the Commission's Conference Room, 540 Broadway, Albany, New York, 12207. The hearing officer of record will be George C. Pratt. An adjournment may be granted upon a showing of good cause that you are unavailable to attend at the scheduled time. You may submit a written request for adjournment to the hearing officer of record at the address noted above accompanied by an affidavit which contains sufficient detail to allow the hearing officer to rule on the request. Failure to appear for the scheduled hearing may result in the disposition of your case and the assessment of a civil penalty in your absence.

The Commission will provide interpretation for hearing impaired parties and participants on request. Any such request must be made in writing and received by the Commission at least one week prior to the hearing date.

You have the right to be represented, to testify, to produce witnesses, to present documentary evidence and to examine opposing witnesses and evidence.

You may submit all or part of your evidence in written form, subject to the discretion of the hearing officer.

Attached is a plain language summary of the Commission's regulations governing adjudicatory proceedings.

Please be advised that, pursuant to Lobbying Act 1-o, a finding that you knowingly and wilfully failed to file a Client Semi-Annual Report subjects you to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $25,000 per violation.
