INTRODUCTION

Section 94(9)(l) of the Executive Law and § 1-d(g) of Legislative Law 1-A (the “Lobbying Act”), mandate that the Joint Commission on Public Ethics (“the Commission” or “JCOPE”) annually report on and summarize its activities. In accordance with the law, the Commission issues this report for the calendar year 2016 including data relating to ethics and lobbying regulation. With respect to lobbying data, 2016 saw record levels of participation, as evidenced by the number of lobbyists, clients, and lobbying registrations (i.e., lobby-to-client relationships), the highest count of each ever recorded by this Commission. Aggregate spending remained relatively unchanged in 2016 after record highs in 2014 and 2015. Total spending by lobbying entities was $242.7 million, nearly the same as what was spent in 2015. However, compensation paid to retained and employed in-house lobbyists increased dramatically, and hit an all-time high of $218.6 million.

Unlike previous years, the list of top spending entities was not dominated by groups involved in one particular industry or subject area. Instead, other than ride-hailing service Uber Technologies, Inc., the list is made up of a combination of representatives from typically active industries, i.e., real estate, education, and organized labor. The top spending entity was the Rent Stabilization Association of New York City ($3.6 million), followed by the Greater New York Hospital Association, the New York State Nurses Association, and Uber Technologies. Last year’s top spending entity, Invest in Education Coalition, Inc. (formerly the Coalition for Opportunity in Education, Inc.), reported $369,400 in lobbying expenditures for 2016, down from $5.1 million in 2015. Also included in the top ten in 2016 were Families for Excellent Schools, Inc., New York State United Teachers, Healthcare Association of New York State, United Federation of Teachers, the New York State Association of Realtors, and the New York State Trial Lawyers Association.

Separately, in conjunction with this annual report, the Commission will publish the complete data filed by lobbyists and their clients for 2016 in spreadsheet format on its website, jcope.ny.gov. Additional summaries of lobbying data are included in this report. The full 2016 listing of lobbyists and public corporations and their financial data is attached hereto as Appendix B.

The report also highlights some of the Commission's achievements and successes in the areas key to its mission – education, regulation, and enforcement activities. During the year, the Commission’s Education unit provided numerous ethics programs for financial disclosure statement filers and State agency ethics officers. In terms of regulation, Commission staff handled hundreds of calls and emails seeking advice and guidance, and the Commission issued three Advisory Opinions covering topics of general importance to State officers and employees. Commission staff also actively continued to pursue investigations and enforcement actions for alleged violations of Public Officers Law and the Lobbying Act. The Commission separately made substantial recommendations for legislative amendments earlier this year (on jcope.ny.gov, go to ‘Laws’ > ‘Proposed Legislative Amendments’), so recommendations are not included with this report. The Commission looks forward to continuing to effectively carry out its mission as it moves into 2017.

THE JOINT COMMISSION ON PUBLIC ETHICS

Statement of the Executive Director

Seth H. Agata

I am proud to present to the Governor, the Legislature and the general public the 2016 Annual Report of the Joint Commission on Public Ethics (JCOPE). This past August marked the fifth anniversary of the launching of an experiment in the oversight of ethics and lobbying, at the center of which lies JCOPE. It is the first and only institution in New York history charged with not only regulating lobbying and ethics in the Executive branch of government, but regulating ethics in the Legislative branch as well.

The Commission's configuration is also unique. It is not merely bipartisan; it consists of appointees of each major party conference from each house of the Legislature along with appointees of the Executive branch, half of whom cannot be members of the Governor's political party.

JCOPE's oversight mandate is all-encompassing. Within its purview are more than 250,000 Executive Branch officers and employees, Legislative Branch officers, employees, and candidates, the four statewide elected officials and every state legislator, as well as those who perform public service by serving as unpaid members of the multitude of State boards and commissions and public benefit corporations. The Commission's jurisdiction also extends to lobbyists and their clients who appear before both State and municipal governments. In sum, JCOPE is the keystone for ethics and lobbying regulation in this State.

This report showcases JCOPE's successes in its ethics and lobbying education, regulation and enforcement activities. While there are limits to how its success is measured, 2016 was unquestionably a year of accomplishments.

Education, for example, serves a distinctly preventative function; the better JCOPE educates, the fewer the number of problems arise. To that end, JCOPE's education and outreach is extensive and comprehensive. Every new FDS filer must complete ethics training; and for public officials and all policy makers, an ethics training update is required on a regular basis. JCOPE provided numerous such training sessions this year, with more than 18,000 filers trained either directly or through agency trainings using the JCOPE material and lesson plan.

JCOPE also held three agency-wide ethics forums in which State agency ethics officers engaged in a broad discussion of ethics compliance issues. It is difficult to ascribe a number to the value of education and training, but the unethical conduct that is prevented by it positively reflects JCOPE's success.

Regulation goes hand in hand with education, and it is one of JCOPE's core missions. JCOPE regulates lobbying throughout the State, and also regulates the ethical conduct of every State officer. To that end, the Commission's highly trained staff effectively fields hundreds of oral and written requests for guidance every year in response to requests for guidance which is provided in forms ranging from telephone conversations, to emails, to letters or even advisory opinions issued by the Commission. This year, for example, the Commission issued three Advisory Opinions covering issues of immediate topical importance.

The Commission is also the repository for more than 29,000 financial disclosure statement filings and more than 51,000 filings by lobbyists. The information these filings contain sheds public light on an otherwise opaque world. JCOPE's maintenance of these records ensures that their completeness and accuracy aids transparency which is the hallmark of its work.

The Commission also began codifying lobbying opinions and practices by introducing a proposal for omnibus lobbying regulations. The Commission held a public hearing and began soliciting public comment on the proposed regulations. The lobbying industry and the public responded robustly, and the Commission is considering those comments, and may begin formal rulemaking – with additional notice and comment – in 2017. This process was deliberately public and inclusive, and will continue in that fashion as this year progresses.

Finally, enforcement of the ethics and lobbying laws can be the most public manifestation of the Commission's authority, despite the statutes and rules that remove, in part, this activity from public view. The Commission plays a crucial role in the regimen of enforcing ethics laws. Indeed, the scopes of both the Public Officers Law and the Lobbying Act are broad, and the Commission is not saddled with the burden of having to establish violations "beyond a reasonable doubt." In that vein, however, the Commission is not the United States Attorney, the Attorney General or a district attorney; it cannot empanel a grand jury, conduct wiretaps and electronic surveillance and it cannot grant immunity from prosecution by law enforcement bodies. What the public does not see – and by law cannot see – is the cooperation between federal, state and local law enforcement and the Commission and the mutual recognition of the respective jurisdictions.

This past year, investigative and enforcement actions led to more than $566,000 in settlements, more than double the number of investigations opened, and the Commission's first formal referrals of criminal Public Officer Law violations to the New York Attorney General and a district attorney.

In sum, 2016 has been a year of progress and productivity for the Commission. We are proud of the accomplishments detailed in this report, while ever mindful that by holding ourselves accountable, we can, and must build on our successes. We have done so in 2016, and will continue to in 2017 and beyond.

The Public Integrity Reform Act of 2011

The Commission was formally constituted in December 2011 by the Public Integrity Reform Act (“PIRA”) to oversee and regulate ethics and lobbying in New York State. (See Executive Law § 94 attached hereto as Appendix A.) The Commission continued the lobbying and ethics oversight functions of its predecessor agencies with broad regulatory authority over the four statewide elected officials, candidates for those offices, Executive branch employees, members of the Legislature, candidates for the Legislature, and Legislative branch employees, as well as certain political party chairs, and registered lobbyists and their clients.

The Commission consists of 14 commissioners; three appointed by the Temporary President of the Senate, three appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, one appointed by the Minority Leader of the Senate, one appointed by the Minority Leader of the Assembly, and six appointed by the Governor and the Lieutenant Governor. The Commission chairperson is selected by the Governor. Terms for commissioners vary and are set forth in Executive Law § 94.

The Commission meets, at a minimum, bimonthly, but most commonly on a monthly basis, and appoints an executive director to run the functions and administration of the agency.

Commissioners

Michael K. Rozen, Acting Chair

Mr. Rozen is President & CEO of TRGP Capital Management, LLC, a private equity firm focused on strategic investments in complex litigation, and a partner at New York law firm Rozen, LLP. Mr. Rozen has successfully negotiated thousands of disputes in such areas as product liability, toxic tort, environmental insurance coverage, shareholder class actions, employment discrimination and intellectual property, has been appointed by federal and state courts as Special Settlement Master in a variety of matters, has assisted corporations in structuring and negotiating prepackaged asbestos bankruptcies, was a Deputy Special Master of the Federal September 11, 2001 Victim Compensation Fund and resolved all claims arising out of the Upper Big Branch mine explosion and Penn State/Sandusky scandal. Mr. Rozen is Vice Chair and a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Human Rights First. Mr. Rozen received his J.D. from the Georgetown University Law Center and his B.A. from Tufts University. Mr. Rozen was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

Robert Cohen

Mr. Cohen is a founding member and partner at Taylor & Cohen, LLP, a boutique litigation firm with an emphasis on complex commercial business disputes, employment law, and civil rights. He also spent a number of years as a litigation partner in the New York office of Kirkland & Ellis LLP. Prior to starting his own firm, Mr. Cohen was Director of Ethics and Lobbying Guidance and Special Counsel for the Joint Commission on Public Ethics. Mr. Cohen served as a law clerk for Honorable Michael Hawkins of United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Prior to law school, he worked for several years as a legislative assistant in the Washington D.C. office of U.S. Representative Ed Pastor. He received his law degree from the University of Chicago Law School and his undergraduate degree from the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Cohen was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

Marvin E. Jacob

Mr. Jacob is a retired partner of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, where he focused primarily on corporate financial restructurings. Prior to joining Weil in 1979 as a partner, he served as the associate regional administrator of the New York office of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. During his tenures at the SEC and Weil, he taught bankruptcy reorganization and securities regulation at New York Law School as an adjunct professor of law and published and lectured extensively. Since his retirement from Weil, Mr. Jacob's practice has focused primarily on mediations, arbitrations, public service and pro bono matters. From 2006-2009, Mr. Jacob served as a member of the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct and in 2010 was appointed to the Governor's Task Force on Public Authority Reform. Mr. Jacob was originally appointed to the Commission in December 2011 and was reappointed by Assembly Speaker Carl E. Heastie.

Seymour Knox, IV

Mr. Knox is the CEO of Knox International, LLC, a New York-based marketing and consulting group. For twenty years, Mr. Knox served as vice president of corporate relations for the Buffalo Sabres. He has served on various boards including the Albright- Knox Art Gallery in Buffalo, Parks and Trails New York, Artpark in Lewiston, and the George Eastman House in Rochester. He graduated from Lake Forest College with a B.A. in American Studies and Art History. Mr. Knox was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

Gary J. Lavine

Mr. Lavine is associated of counsel with the Syracuse law firm of Bousquet Holstein PLLC. Mr. Lavine served in the United States Department of Energy as deputy general counsel for environment & nuclear programs during the administration of President George W. Bush. Previously, he was senior vice president & chief legal officer of Niagara Mohawk Holdings Inc. and senior vice president, legal & corporate relations of Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation. Mr. Lavine served in a number of staff positions with the state Legislature, including legislative counsel to the minority leader of the Assembly; counsel, Senate Committee on Insurance; executive director, Senate Committee on Corporations, Authorities & Commissions; and assistant to the chair, Joint Legislative Committee on Reapportionment. He served four terms as a member of the United States Commission for the Preservation of America's Heritage Abroad. He received degrees in both business administration and law from Syracuse University. Mr. Lavine was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

J. Gerard McAuliffe, Jr.

Mr. McAuliffe has been a sole practitioner in his own general practice law firm in Johnstown since 2002, with an emphasis on family, matrimonial, estate, personal injury, and real estate matters. He has also served as the Fulton County Public Defender and Administrator since 1996. Mr. McAuliffe previously spent time with the New York State Office of Attorney General's Organized Crime Task Force and the Ontario County District Attorney's Office. He is a member of the Fulton County and New York State Bar Associations. He received his law degree from Albany Law School and his undergraduate degree from Siena College. Mr. McAuliffe was appointed to the Commission by Senate Majority Leader John J. Flanagan.

Dawn L. Smalls

Ms. Smalls is currently a partner at Boies, Schiller & Flexner with a focus on complex commercial litigation, government response, and crisis management. Prior to joining the firm as a partner, she directed the Ford Foundation's work in democratic participation and served as a Program Officer at the Open Society Institute, where she was responsible for grant-making strategies for non-partisan civic engagement and political reform. Ms. Smalls served as Executive Secretary at the Department of Health and Human Services from 2009 to 2011, acting as chief regulatory officer for the agency and as a principal advisor to its Secretary, Deputy Secretary, and Chief of Staff. During the 2008 presidential election cycle, she was a Regional Political Director for the Hillary Clinton for President Campaign and the New York State Political Director for the Obama for America campaign. From 1998 to 2000, she served as Assistant to the White House Chief of Staff and as a Special Assistant in the Office of Management and Budget. Ms. Smalls received her law degree from Stanford Law School and her B.A. from Boston University. Ms. Smalls was appointed to the Commission by Senate Minority Leader Andrea Stewart-Cousins.

George H. Weissman

Mr. Weissman is Chair of the Cortland College Foundation, Inc. and a member of the Advisory Board of the Government Law Center at Albany Law School and Chair of its Governance Committee. In his over thirty years of government service, Mr. Weissman served in various capacities in the legislative and executive branches of government. He received his J.D. from Albany Law School of Union University. Mr. Weissman was appointed to the Commission by former Senate Majority Leader Dean G. Skelos.

The Executive Director

Seth H. Agata was appointed Executive Director of the Joint Commission on Public Ethics in March 2016. He previously served as Chairperson of the New York State Public Employment Relations Board and acted as Counsel to the Governor and as well as First Assistant Counsel and Ethics Officer to the Executive Chamber. Before joining the Governor's staff, he was Assistant Secretary for Program and Policy (with oversight of the Assembly Codes, Correction, Election Law, and Judiciary Committees) and Senior Associate Counsel in the Office of Counsel to the Majority for the New York State Assembly. He served as Counsel for Investigations in the Office of State Comptroller, Assistant District Attorney for Columbia County, and a trial examiner in the New York City Office of Collective Bargaining and was in private law practice in New York City and Columbia County. He co-authored The History of the New York Court of Appeals, 1932-2003 (Columbia U. Press, 2006) and has written on other topics. Mr. Agata is a graduate of the New York State School of Industrial and Labor Relations at Cornell University and the Cornell Law School. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

Structure and Staffing of the Agency

The Commission maintains a statewide presence with offices in Albany, New York City, and Buffalo, extending its coverage to the tens of thousands of State officers and employees, legislative members and employees, and registered lobbyists and clients located throughout the State.

The Commission currently has 55 employees, including attorneys, investigators, auditors, filing specialists, and administrative staff. In 2016, after analyzing the agency and consulting with the Commission and staff, Executive Director Agata proposed, and the Commission approved, a new organization plan for the agency to improve operations and share resources more effectively. Among other things, the lobbying and ethics functions have been separated into distinct divisions to allow staff to focus on specific areas, develop expertise, and provide more guidance and targeted oversight.

The agency and its staff continue to be organized into five divisions, which include several new units, consistent with its multiple statutory and administrative functions in order to maximize productivity and efficiency. Each division is overseen by a director, and each unit by a deputy director.

- 1) The Ethics Division is made up of two main units, Guidance and Financial Disclosure Statements, each of which is headed by a Deputy Director. The Guidance Unit manages the advisory function, providing advice to the state officers and employees who seek guidance in complying with the ethics laws. This function includes providing daily guidance to the regulatory community, drafting regulations and guidelines to clarify ethics issues, and developing educational material on the ethics laws. The Financial Disclosure Statement Unit administers and seeks compliance with the financial disclosure program under Public Officers Law § 73-a that provides the public with information about the outside financial interests of public officials and employees;
- 2) The Lobbying Division also consists of two main units, Statutory Filings and Guidance, each headed by a Deputy Director. The Statutory Filings Unit administers and seeks compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Lobbying Act. The Guidance Unit provides daily guidance in the form of advisory opinions, informal advice, regulations, instructions and educational materials to assist the regulated community in understanding its obligations, and to assist the public in accessing information about the entities that are attempting to influence government decisions;

- 3) The Investigations and Enforcement Division handles the intake and review of complaints alleging violations of the Public Officers Law, Lobbying Act and the Civil Service Law, conducts substantial basis investigations commenced by the Commission, and represents the Commission before an independent hearing officer adjudicating appropriate penalties for violations of the relevant provisions of the law;
- 4) The Communications and Public Information Division oversees the Commission's external communications, the release of public information, content on the Commission's website, requests for public records, and public meetings; and
- 5) The Administration Division manages the Commission's day-to-day administrative needs, including office management, financial transactions, and personnel matters.

Two units are shared between the Ethics and Lobbying Divisions: the Education Unit and the Compliance Audit and Review Unit. The Education Unit develops and presents the mandatory ethics training programs for State officials and lobbyists as well as other curriculum designed to provide specific guidance on additional topics. The Compliance Audit and Review Unit conducts the statutory random audit program to ensure compliance with the Lobbying Act and establishes and conducts reviews of the financial disclosure statements filed with the Commission.

The current executive team consists of Monica J. Stamm, General Counsel, Martin Levine, Deputy General Counsel, and the following division directors who report to the Executive Director: Stephen Boland, Director of Administration; Andrew Bechard, Director of Lobbying; Pei Pei Cheng de-Castro, Director of Investigations and Enforcement; Keith St. John, Director of Ethics; and Walter McClure, Director of Communications and Public Information Officer.

GUIDANCE AND OUTREACH

The Commission provides regular guidance to public employees and officials, lobbyists, and lobbying clients who are subject to the Commission's jurisdiction. On a daily basis, Commission staff and counsel interact with the regulated community, answering questions and addressing issues in both formal and informal communications. In addition, the Commission periodically promulgates regulations and guidelines in order to clarify and amplify provisions in the ethics and lobbying laws. The Commission also provides various training programs to the regulated community and maintains a website with resources as well as access to tens of thousands of publicly available filings, including certain public officials' financial disclosure statements and data filed by lobbyists and their clients.

Advisory Opinions

Pursuant to Executive Law § 94 and Legislative Law Article 1-a (Lobbying Act) § 1-d, the Commission issues formal Advisory Opinions, applying the Public Officers Law or the Lobbying Act to a particular issue or set of facts. These opinions are issued upon approval of a majority of the Commission and are binding on the Commission and on any individual who requested the Opinion, provided that the individual acted in good faith and neither omitted nor misstated any material facts. These opinions are published on the Commission's website with identifying information redacted to preserve confidentiality and provide guidance to the regulated community.

In addition, Commission staff provides informal opinions, upon request, in areas where formal opinions have already established precedent. Typically, staff fields questions regarding restrictions on post-State employment and proposed outside activities by State workers. Individuals who receive informal opinions, which are confidential, may request a formal Advisory Opinion from the full Commission. Commission staff also reviews and approves requests from certain State officials to engage in an outside activity, and to accept honoraria or reimbursement from non-State entities for travel expenses related to official duties.

In 2016, the Commission issued three formal Advisory Opinions, and Commission staff provided written guidance on more than 500 inquiries including informal opinion requests, outside activity requests, and travel reimbursement requests.

The following is a summary of the formal Advisory Opinions issued in 2016. The full text of these and other Advisory Opinions are available on the Commission's website at <http://www.jcope.ny.gov/advice/jcope/index.html>.

Advisory Opinion No. 16-01¹

This Opinion establishes that certain services provided by political consultants constitute lobbying and thus are subject to the Lobbying Act.

The Commission held that when a consultant communicates with a public official (or his or her staff) on behalf of a client for the purpose of enabling the client to explicitly advocate before the public official, lobbying has begun. Therefore, a consultant who engages in direct, preliminary contact with a public official on behalf of a client is engaged in reportable lobbying activity, even if that contact is limited to an introduction or securing a future meeting for the client. In other words, reportable lobbying begins upon first direct contact with a public official, as any other holding would allow consultants to operate in the same sphere as lobbyists, yet be exempted from specific statutes designed to promote transparency about attempts to influence public officials.

Just as using a consultant's access to facilitate advocacy is part of lobbying, it is also the case that a consultant's presence can be part of lobbying. It follows that an individual who, after the initial contact, has direct interaction with a public official in connection with reportable lobbying may also be required to register as a lobbyist. In this context, "direct interaction" includes (i) verbal or written communications, including communications made for the purpose of facilitating access to a public official; (ii) attendance at a meeting with a public official; and (iii) presence on a phone call with a public official.

¹ Part of the opinion is the subject of ongoing litigation and a specific issue relating to communication with the media was addressed and modified by subsequent legislation.

The opinion also addressed a consultant's activity on a grassroots lobbying campaign. First, the Commission clarified the well-established test used to determine when grassroots advocacy constitutes reportable lobbying activity. The Commission held that a grassroots communication constitutes lobbying if it: (1) references, suggests, or otherwise implicates an activity covered by Lobbying Act Section 1-c(c); (2) takes a clear position on the issue in question; and (3) is an attempt to influence a public official through a call to action, i.e., solicits or exhorts the public, or a segment of the public, to contact (a) public official(s). The Commission then clarified its precedent in applying this definition to a consultant's activity in support of a grassroots campaign which can be considered reportable lobbying if the consultant controlled the delivery of and had input into the content of the message. Control of the delivery of a grassroots communication involves participation in the actual delivery of the message. Input on the content of a grassroots message means participating in forming the message.

Advisory Opinion No. 16-02

This opinion sets forth the Commission's position that Public Officers Law § 74 applies to campaign fundraising by statewide elected officials, addressing an interpretation of Public Officers Law § 74 that was expressed by a predecessor agency in a footnote to Advisory opinion No. 98-12. More specifically, the 2016 opinion holds that Public Officers Law § 74 requires statewide elected officials to refrain from knowingly soliciting or accepting monetary or in-kind campaign contributions directly from persons or entities that are the active subject of an ongoing exercise of that official's enforcement powers, or to invite such persons or entities to campaign events.

An indirect solicitation to such person or entity, such as an untargeted mass mailing conducted by an elected official's campaign staff, will not violate Public Officers Law § 74 if the elected official has no actual knowledge that the solicitation will be sent to an active subject. An elected official who learns that a contribution has been received from an active subject must return the contribution. Finally, if, within twelve months after a person or entity has contributed to an elected official's campaign, that person or entity subsequently becomes an active subject, the official must recuse himself from any participation in the matter, unless the contribution was the result of an indirect solicitation or was unsolicited.

Advisory Opinion No. 16-03

This opinion clarified the standard for determining what constitutes a former State employee's former agency for two-year bar purposes. The inquiring party had been employed by Metro-North Railroad ("Metro-North") but, in 2014 was transferred to the Metropolitan Transportation Authority ("MTA"). There he worked exclusively for the MTA, but for pension reasons remained on Metro-North's payroll.

The inquiry arose out of the procedure the MTA is utilizing for its Requests for Proposals ("RFPs"). After the individual's retirement from State service in 2016, the MTA issued an RFP for an "all-agency" contract to provide management development training for the MTA and its subsidiaries. In an effort to leverage the MTA's size and money, the MTA is moving toward a consolidated procurement model using "all-agency" contracts as opposed to having each agency/subsidiary handling its own procurement. The procurement group within MTA headquarters provides for and administers an RFP for an all-agency contract. At the end of the procurement period, a selection committee comprised of representatives from MTA as well as each of the MTA's subsidiary agencies reviews and evaluates all the bids. Generally, the committee may award an all-agency contract to one vendor or, as is the case here, compile a list of potential vendors from which the MTA and its subsidiary agencies can choose. Members of the selection committee review all bids and rate them, using a score card or points system, based on a number of factors including operational and financial criteria. Then the bids are officially selected via a vote of the committee members. Each committee member has an equal vote and decisions are made by majority vote. Once awarded, the MTA and each of its subsidiary agencies may utilize the all-agency contract however they choose.

Here, the RFP in question would be administered by MTA, and bids selected by a committee made up of representatives from MTA and each of its subsidiaries, including Metro-North. The inquiring party asked the Commission to determine: (1) which agency or agencies must be considered his former agency for post-employment restriction purposes; and (2) whether he may, without violating Public Officers Law § 73(8)(a), submit a bid to the MTA pursuant to the RFP, where selections will be made by a committee of representatives from the MTA and each of its subsidiary agencies, including Metro-North.

The opinion analyzed these questions in light of the fundamental purpose of the two-year bar, which is to prevent former employees from receiving an unfair advantage or an appearance of such simply because of their contacts within and/or knowledge of their former agency. The potential for such unfair advantage is predicated upon a person having had regular and significant contact or interactions with an agency. With that in mind, the opinion provides a set of factors that should be considered in determining whether the nature of a person's duties and responsibilities with respect to a second agency are such that the second agency should also be considered the person's former agency. These factors include, but are not limited to, whether: (1) the person was subject to the oversight and decision making processes of a second agency; (2) he actively and routinely managed significant projects or matters relating to a second agency; and/or (3) his duties to a second agency were sufficiently significant and regular. Whether a former employee was on an agency's payroll may be a factor to consider since it could relate to oversight, but that fact, standing alone, does not make an agency a "former agency."

At the time of his departure from State service, the inquiring party had not performed any duties for Metro-North or managed any projects or matters relating to Metro-North for approximately two years. Metro-North had no oversight over his work and could not assign any duties or responsibilities to him. In fact, the MTA, not Metro-North, approved his time sheets and vacation requests. His only relevant connection to Metro-North was being on its payroll which, alone, is not sufficient to constitute a former agency. Therefore, Metro-North would not be considered his former agency for post-employment purposes.

The opinion concluded that the former agency was only the MTA, as the only agency which had oversight over the individual, and to which his duties were sufficiently significant and regular at the time he retired. Consequently, the two-year bar precluded him from appearing, practicing, or rendering services for compensation on matters before the MTA for two years following his separation from State service. The submission of a bid in response to an RFP issued by one's former agency within the two-year bar period would constitute a prohibited appearance. Because the MTA would administer the RFP, any response to the RFP would clearly constitute a prohibited appearance before the MTA.

Development of Regulations and Guidelines

In 2016, several amendments to the Commission's enabling legislation, the Lobbying Act, and the Public Officers Law were enacted. As a result of those amendments, many of the Commission's existing regulations required revision. In late 2016, the Commission commenced rulemaking proceedings under the State Administrative Procedure Act to bring its regulations in line with these recent legislative changes. Some of the rulemakings were completed in 2016 and some carried over into 2017. Additionally, as discussed in more detail below, the Commission initiated a new project to develop comprehensive regulations under the Lobbying Act to improve the guidance available to the regulated community and to enhance the data available to the public about the activities of those entities who attempt to influence government decisions.

TITLE 19 NYCRR PART 941: Adjudicatory Proceedings and Appeals Procedures

Part J of Chapter 286, Laws of 2016, effected changes to the adjudicatory proceedings conducted by the Commission. In particular, the statute provides persons or entities under investigation by the Commission the right to be heard before a final determination by the Commission, and the right to be informed of the alleged violations of law and supporting evidence at each stage of the process. The new law builds on safeguards that were already in place. This regulation implements these changes and, consistent with past practice, provides due process notice to persons and entities subject to the Commission's jurisdiction and advises them of the Commission's applicable adjudicatory proceedings.

TITLE 19 NYCRR PART 942: Procedure for Requesting an Exemption from Publicly Disclosing Client Information Pursuant to Questions 8(b-1), 8(b-2) or 8(c) on a Financial Disclosure Statement

Chapter 56 of the Laws of 2015 requires filers of financial disclosure statements (“FDS”) under section 73-a of the Public Officers Law, to publicly disclose the identity of private clients and other information related to those clients in response to certain questions on the FDS. The statute also mandated that the Commission (as well as the Office of Court Administration) receive and determine requests for an exemption from the duty to publicly disclose this information.

The regulation, which will take initial effect with the 2016 FDS filings, sets forth the information that the requesting party must submit with such a request, and the factors the Commission will consider when deciding on a request. A request shall be granted if the Commission finds, under the totality of the circumstances, that the interests in nondisclosure, including the general interests served by principles of client confidentiality, outweigh the interests served by disclosure. Otherwise it shall deny the request. The determination of the Commission shall be set forth in writing, and a denial shall include an explanation for the determination.

Training and Outreach

The Commission’s Education Unit provides a comprehensive and dynamic educational program for public officers and employees, lobbyists, and clients of lobbyists to ensure they are fully informed about the State’s ethics and lobbying laws, regulations, and guidelines. Among other things, the Education Unit developed instructor-led trainings on the State’s ethics and lobbying laws, designed web-based programming on a variety of topics, and produced a library of written educational materials which are available on the Commission’s website.

Ethics training is mandatory for State elected officials, officers, and employees who are required to file a FDS with JCOPE. FDS filers include policy makers and those State officers and employees earning above a certain salary threshold. At the release of this report, more than 32,000 of those officials have received mandatory ethics training since it was first offered in 2013. In 2016 alone, the Commission directly and in partnership with agency ethics officers and other designees around the state provided those trainings to more than 18,000 filers.

Executive Law § 94 requires that JCOPE create and conduct three ethics trainings for FDS filers. The first, the “Comprehensive Ethics Training Course” (“CETC”) is a two-hour, CLE-accredited, live training for FDS filers which must be taken within two years of the date the FDS filer began qualifying employment. The Education Unit presents the CETC to FDS filers statewide at our Albany, New York City, and Buffalo offices. As mentioned above, the CETC is delivered via a “Train-the-Trainer” format to agency ethics officers and trainers from New York State agencies, public authorities, commissions, councils and boards (collectively known in the law as “State Agencies”), who in turn provide that training to their employee filers.

Since the CETC was first offered, more than 28,000 FDS filers have completed it. In 2016 alone, more than 4,200 filers completed the training in person either through their respective agencies or at one of the JCOPE offices. The Education Unit also conducts trainings for individual agencies as needed through live, interactive remote training and works closely with agency ethics officers to assist in maintaining and monitoring compliance with the CETC requirements.

The second mandated ethics training for FDS filers, the “Online Ethics Orientation”, represents an expansion for the Commission into interactive web-based training sessions. Utilizing the Statewide Learning Management System, State officers and employees may access this online training at their workstations. The Online Ethics Orientation must be completed by State officers and employees newly subject to the FDS filing requirement within three months of qualifying employment, unless they have taken the live CETC first. Nearly 4,000 filers in total have completed the Orientation as of this report, more than 1,500 of whom did so in 2016.

The Ethics Seminar, the last of the three mandated trainings, was introduced in August 2016. It provides an overview of changes in the relevant laws, regulations, and policies, and includes a question and answer session. Since its introduction, the Commission has and will continue to present one CETC and one live Seminar session per month. In addition, the Commission has adopted a “Train-the-Trainer” format again to allow agency ethics officers and trainers to provide the Seminar and help to efficiently reach more FDS filers.

After FDS filers have taken the CETC, they are required to take ethics training every three years. To satisfy that requirement, FDS filers may complete either the CETC or the Ethics Seminar. 2016 was the first year that the mandated refresher training was due for most State officers and employees. In 2016, nearly 13,000 filers took some form of refresher training.

Members and staff of the Legislature are also required to complete ethics training. A mandatory ethics training program was implemented by the Legislature pursuant to Executive Law § 94(10)(d) and Legislative Law § 80. This training program was provided by the Legislature, assisted by the Legislative Ethics Commission (“LEC”). Additionally, the LEC has developed and fully implemented an online ethics orientation course which all new legislative employees are required to complete within three months of being hired. Over 94 percent of new legislative employees took an online ethics course in 2016. In addition, all legislators completed a comprehensive training course, and more than 90 percent of legislative employees completed ethics training. Additional comprehensive ethics training for employees is ongoing. All newly-elected legislators who began their service January 1, 2017 have received either ethics orientation or comprehensive ethics training pursuant to statutory requirements.

Ethics training is also required for New York State registered lobbyists. The Commission provides an online training course called “Ethics for Lobbyists.” In accordance with the Lobbying Act, this interactive training provides an overview of State laws concerning ethics, including the Public Officers Law, the Lobbying Act, and the Election Law, and must be completed by registered lobbyists once every three years. As of the date of this report, more than 4,500 lobbyists have completed the ethics training program.

In addition to efforts directly related to the development and presentation of training programs, the Education Unit continues to solicit information and ideas from the regulated community. As of the date of this report, JCOPE staff held three Ethics Forums in 2016 with agency ethics officers to discuss gift exclusions, post-employment restrictions, and outside activities. Outreach and responsiveness to the education and training needs of the regulated community continued to be one of the JCOPE's highest priorities in 2016.

Website

The website, jcope.ny.gov, is an important tool for the Commission to communicate with the regulated community and the public, provide guidance on the ethics and lobbying laws and regulations, and publicize information about public officials and parties who influence government decision making. The website provides information about the laws and regulations that govern Commission activities, links to formal advisory opinions issued by the Commission, a library of materials for training and guidance, information concerning Commission enforcement actions, and convenient methods to submit sworn complaints or tips about potential ethics or lobbying violations. A link on the site allows for keyword searching of the formal advisory opinions. The website also makes publicly available tens of thousands of disclosure filings submitted by lobbyists and clients to give New Yorkers meaningful information about those trying to influence government decisions. The website also provides the public with access to the complete data filed by lobbyists and their clients from 2007 to the present in a downloadable spreadsheet format, as well as the Financial Disclosure Statements filed by elected State officials.

The Commission is redesigning its website to, among other things, provide enhanced search functionality as well as improved access to guidance, enforcement actions, and other information. As part of the redesign, the Commission has met with stakeholders in the regulated communities, as well as civic groups, to gather input on making the site more effective.

LOBBYING OVERVIEW

Overview of Developments in 2016

As discussed in greater detail in the preceding section on Guidance and Outreach, in January 2016, the Commission issued Advisory Opinion 16-01, which expands upon precedent of the Commission addressing grassroots lobbying and the role of consultants in different types of lobbying efforts.

The opinion clarifies that grassroots lobbying is a communication that: (1) references, suggests, or implicates a “government action”; (2) takes a clear position on the issue in question; and (3) is an attempt to influence a public official through a call to action, i.e., a solicitation, exhortation, or encouragement to the public or a segment of the public to contact a public official.

It further provides that a consultant may be considered a Lobbyist if he engages in direct or grassroots lobbying. A consultant engages in direct lobbying when he has (1) preliminary contact with a public official to enable or facilitate lobbying by a client; or (2) direct interaction with a public official in connection with lobbying by a client. Preliminary contact includes “door opening,” such as when a paid consultant schedules a meeting between or introduces the client and a public official and the consultant knows or has reason to know that the client will lobby the public official. The Commission clarified that a consultant engages in grassroots lobbying if he (1) helps develop the client’s position on a specific government action; and (2) then “controls the delivery” of the client’s position. As with all lobbying activities, they are only reportable if an individual or entity receives or expends more than $5,000 for this and/or any other lobbying activity.

In conjunction with a similar program initiated by New York City’s Office of the City Clerk, the Commission offered an amnesty program, which provided an opportunity for certain firms, organizations, and people who should have previously filed as lobbyists or clients of lobbyists to do so without facing late fees or civil penalties. Running from January through September 30, 2016, the Amnesty and Compliance Program was designed to encourage those non-filers to comply with the Lobbying Act and disclose information about their lobbying activities. It was only available to a lobbyist or client of a lobbyist who was required to file Lobbying Act reports, but did not, at any time on or after December 10, 2006; who had never been contacted by the Commission for failing to comply with filing requirements; and who had never been the subject of a criminal proceeding for a Lobbying Act violation.

Also, the Commission released a staff proposal for a set of comprehensive lobbying regulations, which marks the first time that existing guidelines and decades of advisory opinions will be compiled into a single regulatory instrument in New York. The proposal will provide a “one-stop shop” for information about the rules and requirements associated with lobbying in New York. Designed to clarify existing law and practice, address new regulatory issues and close loopholes that have evolved over time, the regulations will capture more and better information about the targets of lobbying activities and the real clients of lobbyists. The regulations take into account the use of ever-changing technology in conducting lobbying campaigns. They also streamline reporting requirements, providing more clarity about the requirements related to consultants, grassroots lobbying, sources of funding, and the use of new media for lobbying purposes.

In an effort to promulgate comprehensive and clear regulations and promote meaningful disclosure of lobbying activities, Commission staff has sought and received the input and expertise of good government groups and the regulated community alike. After reviewing and considering comments, the Commission hopes to present comprehensive lobbying regulations in the formal rulemaking process (under the State Administrative Procedure Act) in 2017, at which time the public will have another opportunity to comment.

In order to conform to legislative changes which became effective September 23, 2016 relating to “Source of Funding” disclosure, the Commission amended its regulations governing the obligation for certain lobbyists (who lobby on their own behalf) and clients who devote substantial resources to lobbying activity in New York, to disclose their sources of funding. The amendments lower the reporting threshold for total lobbying expenditures to $15,000 from $50,000, and the minimum contribution amount for disclosing a source to $2,500 from $5,000. In essence, the amendments will increase disclosure of sources of funding. Further, the amendments exclude disclosing the dollar amount of funds received for membership dues, fees, and assessments, while continuing to require that the donor be identified as a source.

As required by § 1-d(b) of the Lobbying Act, the Commission conducts a Random Audit Program which provides an independent and objective evaluation of reports and registration statements filed by lobbyists and their clients. The random selection of audits is done by an outside consulting firm, and a different outside accounting firm certifies that the Random Audit Program operates in compliance with the Lobbying Act. In 2016, the Random Audit Program conducted 400 audits, while implementing two significant investments made in 2015: (1) a comprehensive electronic audit workpaper system; and (2) upgrades to the examination process to ensure a more rigorous audit of each filing selected. Those 400 audits generated 308 findings and recommendations to improve filing or recordkeeping procedures, or to file amended reports to correct discrepancies uncovered in the audit process.

2016 Lobbying Data

Participation in lobbying reached record levels during the lobbying year ending December 31, 2016, with 7,314 individual lobbyists reported on 6,630 lobbyist registrations filed with the Commission, representing 4,960 clients. These figures represent significant increases from 2015 levels and the highest figures ever reported to this Commission. In addition, 101 public corporations registered and filed as lobbyists or filed reports as clients of lobbyists. (Lobbying Act §§ 1-c(i), 1-e, and 1-i).

- ◆ In 2016, approximately 99 percent of lobbyists and 49 percent of clients used the online filing system to submit their registrations and reports.
- ◆ The online application automatically notifies filers of minor filing errors prior to submission and prompts the filer for corrections. This has significantly reduced manual processing by staff.

Staff continued to encourage lobbyists and clients to use the online filing system. Electronic filers are able to view the status of their filings online and make necessary changes immediately.

All filings received by the Commission are reviewed for completeness. In 2016, more than 51,000 filings and lobbying contracts were reviewed and processed, the highest number recorded by the Commission.

The Commission's oversight extends to lobbyists and clients attempting to influence any local law, ordinance, rule, regulation or rate pending before certain municipalities or its subdivisions. (Lobbying Act § 1-c(k)). A total of 658 registrations were filed for lobbyists active on only local issues, up from 492 in 2015, but nearly 2,900 registrations were filed for lobbyists active on both local and State issues, up some 17 percent over the prior year. Thus, 53.4 percent of the 6,630 lobbyist registrations filed indicate at least some local lobbying. The Commission's jurisdiction also extends to procurement lobbying on the State and local level. Approximately 23 percent of all lobbying registrations reported procurement lobbying activities.

Despite the increased number of lobbyists, clients and resulting filings, 2016 saw little change in aggregate spending from the record amounts reported in 2015. A total of $242.7 million in lobbying spending was reported for the year, representing a decrease of $400,813 – approximately 0.16 percent – as compared to 2015. That said, spending on compensation paid to retained and employee lobbyists increased by $11.9 million – or 5.8 percent – over the record set in 2015, to a new record of $218.6 million. Advertising expenses decreased dramatically, down 44.76 percent to $9.9 million, and event-related expenses dropped to $640,490.^{2 3}

² All statistics discussed in this report are based on lobbying filings processed by the Commission as of March 31, 2017.

³ In compiling and analyzing data from the 2016 lobbying filings, it was noted that the aggregate amounts reported being received by lobbyists exceed the aggregate amounts reported being spent by lobbying clients. This disparity can be attributed to a series of factors, including: lobbyists possibly incurring overhead-type expenses that are not billed to clients, and thus not reported on client filings; as a result of differing accounting methodologies, lobbyists may report amounts that were accrued or billed to clients, while clients may have reported only amounts that have been paid; or clients may have failed to submit required filings. To the extent it is due to missing reports from client filers, the Commission is engaged in active outreach and compliance efforts to ensure that those reports are submitted.

The list of top ten highest lobbying spenders was not dominated by any single industry, but rather (other than ride-hailing service Uber Technologies, Inc.) a combination of representatives from typically active industries, i.e., real estate, education, and organized labor. The top spending entity was the Rent Stabilization Association of New York City ($3.6 million), followed by the Greater New York Hospital Association, the New York State Nurses Association, and Uber Technologies. Last year's top spending entity, Invest in Education Coalition, Inc. (formerly the Coalition for Opportunity in Education, Inc.), reported $369,400 in lobbying expenditures for 2016, down from $5.1 million in 2015. Also included in the top ten in 2016 were Families for Excellent Schools, Inc., New York State United Teachers, Healthcare Association of New York State, United Federation of Teachers, the New York State Association of Realtors, and the New York State Trial Lawyers Association.

The ten highest spending lobbying entities, discussed above, spent more than $20 million, or approximately 8.4 percent of all lobbying spending. Within this group, approximately 63 percent of spending was allocated to advertisements or other expenses. As a comparison, total lobbying spending across the board was split approximately 90 percent to compensation and 10 percent to expenses. Thus, at the very highest levels, spending is allocated more to advertisements and other expenses, while the industry as a whole continues to operate with the expenditures heavily dedicated to lobbyist compensation.

As discussed above, the filings submitted pursuant to the disclosure requirements under the Lobbying Act are available on the Commission's website. The Commission will continue to ensure compliance through training and outreach, as well as audits and enforcement actions.

By law, the complete 2016 listing of lobbyists and public corporations including compensation and reimbursed expenses is attached hereto as Appendix B. Separately, in conjunction with this annual report, the Commission will publish in spreadsheet format on its website the complete data filed by lobbyists and their clients for 2016. These spreadsheets give the public ease of access to, and the ability to perform custom analyses of, the data thereby increasing transparency.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

To maintain the public's trust and confidence in government through disclosure and to aid in preventing corruption, favoritism, undue influence, and abuses of official position, certain public officers and employees are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement ("FDS") with the Commission pursuant to Public Officers Law § 73-a and Executive Law § 94.

Annual Financial Disclosure Statements

Public Officers Law § 73-a requires State officers or employees who receive compensation in excess of the filing rate of an SG-24 (which was $91,821 in 2016), or who hold a policy-making position as determined by their appointing authority, to file a FDS. This requirement applies to heads of State agencies, departments, boards, bureaus, divisions, commissions, councils, and members or directors of public authorities, as well as the State University of New York and City University of New York. The four statewide elected officials (Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General and Comptroller), the state chairs of recognized political parties, and certain county chairs of these parties are also required to file a FDS.

The Commission also has authority to enforce this requirement with respect to legislative members, candidates for those offices, and legislative staff. Since 2012, current legislative members and legislative employees have been required to file their FDS with the Legislative Ethics Commission ("LEC") on May 15 of each year, which are then submitted by the LEC to the Commission by June 30. The Commission continues to track and review these statements.

As prescribed in Executive Law § 94, the Commission posts the financial disclosure statements submitted by the four statewide elected officials and all members of the legislature to its website. Other filed FDSs are available for public review upon request. Further, pursuant to Public Officers Law § 73-a(2)(d), the Commission must identify and post on its website a list of candidates for state office who have not timely filed. Public Officers Law § 73-a(2)(a)(iii)-(vii) requires that each candidate for statewide elected office or the Legislature, within 10 days of becoming a candidate, file an annual statement of financial disclosure with the LEC. The LEC forwards each such candidate's FDS filing and a list of required filers to the Commission.

In certain circumstances, the Commission may grant an exemption from filing to individuals who earn above the filing rate. An exemption request may be submitted either by an individual or by a state agency or employee organization on behalf of a group of individuals who share the same job title or employment classification. For an exemption to be granted, an individual's job duties may not involve negotiating, authorizing, or approving:

- ◆ contracts, leases, franchises, or similar matters;
- ◆ the purchase, sale or rental of real property, goods, or services;
- ◆ the obtaining of grants of money or loans; or
- ◆ the adoption or repeal of rules or regulations having the force and effect of law.

In 2016, the Commission processed more than 29,000 individual FDS, approximately 92 percent of which were filed electronically and eight percent of which were submitted as paper forms. Included in this number are approximately 4,200 FDS filed on paper by members and employees of, and candidates for, the Legislature.

Client Disclosure Requirements

Additional client disclosure questions were added to the FDS form as a result of amendments to Public Officers Law § 73-a in 2015. Currently, public officials who, outside their State position, practice law or a profession licensed by the Department of Education, are licensed real estate brokers, or work for a firm required to register as a lobbyist with the Commission, must make certain disclosures about their clients or customers, including the following:

- ◆ If the public official personally provided services to the client or referred the client to his or her firm, and the official or firm earned more than $10,000 in fees from the client in connection with certain non-ministerial matters before the state, the public official must disclose the client, the fees received, and information about the matter and the services provided.
- ◆ If the public official did not personally provide services to the client, but provided services to a firm, the official must identify the category of amount received for providing such services and describe the services.

Public officials who receive $10,000 or more from such outside employment must also disclose:

- ◆ The identity of a client who pays the official, or is billed by the official's firm, more than $5,000 for services personally provided by the official.
- ◆ The identity of each registered lobbyist who directly referred to the official a client from whom the official or the official's firm received more than $5,000 for services, along with the identity of the client, the category of amount received for providing such services, and information about the matter referred.

All client disclosure requirements include certain automatic exclusions, e.g., medical, pharmaceutical, or dental services, mental health services, residential real estate brokering services, or legal services related to law enforcement prosecutions and investigations, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or domestic relations matters.

The 2015 legislative amendments also permit a public official to seek an exemption from the client disclosure requirements through the Commission or the Office of Court Administration. To implement this change in law, the Commission has issued regulations setting out the procedure for requesting such exemptions which became effective in 2017.

Random Review Program for FDS

Pursuant to Executive Law § 94, the Commission conducts a program of comprehensive reviews of FDS. The primary objective of this random review program is to ascertain compliance with Public Officers Law § 73-a. Particular focus is devoted to confirming whether all responses are complete, are directly related to the corresponding questions, and are consistent with internal records maintained by the Commission, including previously filed FDSs and requests for advisory opinions, and related public information. This program ensures that the public has access to complete and accurate information about the financial interests and potential conflicts of state officials and employees.

INVESTIGATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT

Overview

The Commission is charged with investigating potential violations of the State’s ethics laws (Public Officers Law §§ 73, 73-a, and 74), the “Little Hatch Act” (Civil Service Law § 107), and the Lobbying Act (Legislative Law Article 1-A). The Commission has jurisdiction to investigate violations of law by officers and employees at State agencies and departments including commissions, boards, public benefit corporations, public authorities, SUNY, CUNY, and the statutory closely-affiliated corporations; the four statewide elected officials and members of the Legislature (and candidates for those offices); employees of the Legislature; certain political party chairpersons; and registered lobbyists and their clients.

Investigations may be conducted on the Commission’s own initiative, based on referrals from other governmental entities, or in response to information provided by the public. The Commission’s procedures for submitting tips and filing complaints alleging violations of the Public Officers Law or the Lobbying Act are available on the Commission's website at www.jcope.ny.gov and www.reportmisconduct.ny.gov or by calling the hotline, 1-800-87-ETHICS.

That said, not all investigative matters warrant enforcement action. In some cases, based on the facts, the Commission concluded that the public interest would be better served by providing education and guidance to prevent future violations. The Commission continues to exercise its discretion to resolve some investigative matters with “guidance letters” setting forth the appropriate legal and regulatory considerations to guide future conduct.

The Commission maintains relationships with law enforcement partners and with agencies, agency counsel, ethics officers, and other agency personnel, coordinating efforts when appropriate. The Commission also collaborates with State agencies to efficiently resolve disciplinary matters that involve violations under the Commission’s jurisdiction.

In 2016, legislation was passed that amended the Commission’s procedures for conducting investigations and enforcement actions. As discussed above, as a result of the 2016 amendments, the Commission has amended its regulations governing the conduct of its investigations and adjudicatory proceedings. (19 NYCRR Part 941).

Pursuant to Executive Law § 94, before commencing an investigation, the Commission must provide the person or entity who is the subject of allegations with notice of any alleged violation of law and a fifteen-day period in which to respond. This notice is commonly referred to as a “fifteen-day letter.” In accordance with amendments to Executive Law § 94 enacted in 2016, the fifteen-day letter must now not only describe the possible or alleged violations of law (which it has done in the past), but must include a “description of the . . . evidence, if any, supporting such allegations, provided however that [the Commission] shall redact any information that might, in the judgment of the [C]ommission, be prejudicial to either the complainant or the investigation. . . .” Following the issuance of a fifteen-day letter, the Commission must vote on whether to commence a full investigation to determine if a substantial basis exists to conclude that a relevant law has been violated.

Before the 2016 amendments, upon commencing an investigation, the Commission issued a written “Notice of Substantial Investigation” to the respondent indicating that it had commenced an investigation and giving the respondent 30 days from the issuance of the notice to submit a written response, and notifying the respondent that, among other things, the Commission could issue a Substantial Basis Investigation Report (“SBIR”) which would be made public within 45 days of its issuance. The matter would be heard before a hearing officer in a public hearing, and the hearing officer would make findings of facts and recommendations.

As a result of the 2016 amendments, after conducting an investigation, the Commission will issue a “Notice of Substantial Investigation and Hearing.” This new notice will include, among other things, not only the notice of hearing and right to be heard, but also the factual basis for the allegations but not conclusions of law. In addition, at least seven days before a hearing, the Commission will provide to the respondent any additional evidence supporting the allegations not set forth in the fifteen-day letter in sufficient detail to enable the respondent to respond. Upon the issuing of a “Notice of Substantial Investigation and Hearing”, every respondent would be entitled to a confidential hearing before an independent hearing officer. In addition, the Commission will now have express jurisdiction over legislators and legislative employees for purposes of providing a hearing.

The hearing officer will make proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law. The parties will have the right to respond to the hearing officer’s proposed findings of fact and recommendations within 30 days of their issuance, and Commission staff must also submit a proposed SBIR to the Commission. Within 60 days of receipt of that proposal, the Commission must issue its SBIR. The Commission may adopt either in whole or in part, or reverse, remand, and/or dismiss, the hearing officer’s findings and recommendations. The SBIR is now the final administrative adjudication.

The Commission has authority to impose penalties for violations by Executive Branch officers and employees, lobbyists, and clients. As in the past, to ensure fairness of the proceedings, adjudications are conducted by independent hearing officers who are selected randomly from a pool of hearing officers. In the event that the Commission finds a substantial basis to conclude that a member of or candidate for the Legislature, or legislative employee violated the law, it presents its SBIR to the Legislative Ethics Commission (“LEC”), which may then assess penalties pursuant to its own adjudicatory regulations, which are available on its website at www.legethics.com.

Information concerning the Commission’s enforcement actions, including settlement agreements, is published on the Commission’s website.

2016 Review and Disposition of Investigative Matters

The Commission processed more than 200 matters in 2016. In general, allegations cover a broad range of potential violations of the Public Officers Law, including conflicts of interest, improper gifts, nepotism, failure to file financial disclosure statements, and post-employment issues. In addition, some matters involved alleged violations of the Lobbying Act, including improper gifts, failure to register as a lobbyist, and failure to submit required filings.

In 2016, the Commission issued 32 fifteen-day letters, commenced 25 investigations, settled eight matters, and issued two Substantial Basis Investigation Reports, as discussed in more detail below.⁵ For the first time, the Commission referred two matters for criminal investigation, one to the Albany County District Attorney and the other to New York State Attorney General. Of the 32 fifteen-day letters, two were sent to members/employees of the Legislature, 15 to Executive Branch officials/employees, and 15 to registered lobbyists or clients of registered lobbyists. Of the 25 investigations that were commenced, 12 involved Executive Branch officials/employees, 11 involved registered lobbyists or clients of registered lobbyists, and two involved members/employees of the Legislature. The Commission commenced the investigations by a unanimous vote in all but five matters. At the end of 2016, the Commission had 27 open investigations (11 relating to Executive Branch officials/employees, 13 relating to lobbying entities, and three relating to members/employees of the Legislature) and 47 matters pending review.

In addition, the Commission voted on two matters involving elected officials, both relating to members of the Legislature and both remain open. The Commission's investigations and enforcement actions in 2016 resulted in penalties totaling approximately $566,500. As mentioned above, the Commission entered into settlement agreements to resolve eight matters, six involving violations of the Public Officers Law by Executive Branch employees and two involving alleged violations of the Lobbying Act by registered lobbyists or their clients. These enforcement actions encompassed a range of violations, including abuse of office, nepotism, accepting prohibited gifts, and failing to file required disclosures with the Commission.

On February 12, 2016, upon referral by the Commission, the LEC assessed a civil penalty against former Member of the Assembly Dennis Gabryszak in the amount of $100,000. This was the Commission's second action against a legislator (the first was in 2013 against former Member of the Assembly Vito Lopez). This matter was also the first case in which misuse of state funds for a re-election campaign was found to violate the Public Officers Law.

The Commission also conducted two public hearings on enforcement actions under the Public Officers Law and Lobbying Act. On October 31, 2016, following a hearing, the Commission assessed a civil penalty against State Advisers, LLC in the amount of $180,000 for violations of the Lobbying Act. The Commission had not received the findings and recommendations of the hearing officer in the second proceeding as of the end of 2016.

Also in 2016, a New York State Supreme Court Justice reaffirmed the Commission's broad authority to issue subpoenas to inquire into matters under its jurisdiction.

Perhaps the Commission's most notable enforcement actions this year included the highest civil penalty assessed in its history. During the federal criminal prosecutions of former Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver and former Senate Majority Leader Dean Skelos, allegations of violations of the Lobbying Act came to light. The coordination between the Commission and the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York resulted in two settlement agreements against clients of lobbyists and marks a major milestone in ethics law enforcement. While the lawmakers who sought to use their official positions to secure unwarranted privileges were punished criminally, the clients of lobbyists who facilitated these acts and provided those public officers with benefits faced the consequences of their actions. They include the following:

Glenwood Management Corp. and Administrators for the Professions, Inc.: The Commission entered into settlement agreements with lobbyists or clients of lobbyists Glenwood Management Corp. and Administrators for the Professions, Inc. ("AFP") relating to alleged Lobbying Act violations. Glenwood Management agreed to pay a $200,000 fine, and admitted to violating the Lobbying Act, and AFP agreed to pay a $70,000 fine to resolve the matter. Glenwood is a major real estate management company with significant interests in the New York City metropolitan area. In its agreement, Glenwood admitted that it violated the Lobbying Act by failing to disclose activities and meetings related to lobbying former Senate Majority Leader Dean Skelos in its Client Semi-Annual Reports and by failing to submit required Statements of Registration and Lobbyist Bi-Monthly Reports reflecting lobbying activity on its own behalf. In so admitting these wrongful acts, Glenwood acknowledged that it had retained a tax certiorari law firm knowing that a portion of the fees paid would be shared with former Speaker of the Assembly Sheldon Silver, who would perform no work in connection with such legal services. Glenwood also acknowledged that it recommended to an environmental technology company that the firm hire Skelos's son, Adam Skelos, as a consultant, and arranged for another company to pay the younger Skelos a referral fee. Glenwood said it made those arrangements regarding Silver and Skelos out of concern that losing the support and influence of the then-powerful lawmakers would harm its business interests. In addition to the financial penalty, Glenwood has agreed to submit the required statements and reports for the 2011-2012 and 2013-2014 lobbyist registration periods.

AFP is a company that managed the business operations of Physicians Reciprocal Insurers ("PRI"), a multimillion dollar reciprocal insurance company that provides insurance coverage for medical professionals, hospitals, clinics, and medical schools and colleges in New York. In its agreement, AFP acknowledged that in the course of lobbying Skelos on matters related to medical malpractice insurance, it employed Adam Skelos after the Senator told company representatives his son needed a job with health benefits. AFP admitted that the younger Skelos did not perform that job, which was ostensibly to promote PRI's services to prospective clients, but he was kept on the payroll at the former Senator's request and out of concern that not doing so would harm the company's business interests.

Executive Law §94

Joint commission on public ethics; functions, powers and duties; review of financial disclosure statements; advisory opinions; investigation and enforcement.

1. There is established within the department of state a joint commission on public ethics which shall consist of fourteen members and shall have and exercise the powers and duties set forth in this section with respect to statewide elected officials, members of the legislature and employees of the legislature, and state officers and employees, as defined in sections seventy-three and seventy-three-a of the public officers law, candidates for statewide elected office and for the senate or assembly, and the political party chairman as that term is defined in section seventy-three-a of the public officers law, lobbyists and the clients of lobbyists as such terms are defined in article one-A of the legislative law, and individuals who have formerly held such positions, were lobbyists or clients of lobbyists, as such terms are defined in article one-A of the legislative law, or who have formerly been such candidates. This section shall not be deemed to have revoked or rescinded any regulations or advisory opinions issued by the legislative ethics commission, the commission on public integrity, the state ethics commission and the temporary lobbying commission in effect upon the effective date of chapter fourteen of the laws of two thousand seven which amended this section to the extent that such regulations or opinions are not inconsistent with any law of the state of New York, but such regulations and opinions shall apply only to matters over which such commissions had jurisdiction at the time such regulations and opinions were promulgated or issued. The commission shall undertake a comprehensive review of all such regulations and opinions, which will address the consistency of such regulations and opinions among each other and with the new statutory language, and of the effectiveness of the existing laws, regulations, guidance and ethics enforcement structure to address the ethics of covered public officials and related parties. Such review shall be conducted with the legislative ethics commission and, to the extent possible, the report's findings shall reflect the full input and deliberations of both commissions after joint consultation. The commission shall, before February first, two thousand fifteen, report to the governor and legislature regarding such review and shall propose any regulatory or statutory changes and issue any advisory opinions necessitated by such review.
2. The members of the commission shall be appointed as follows: three members shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate, three members shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly, one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate, one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly, and six members shall be appointed by the governor and the lieutenant governor. In the event that a vacancy arises with respect to a member of the commission first appointed pursuant to the chapter of the laws of two thousand eleven which amended this subdivision by a legislative leader, the legislative leaders of the same political party in the same house shall appoint a member to fill such vacancy irrespective of whether that legislative leader's political party is in the majority or minority. Of the members appointed by the governor and the lieutenant governor, at least three members shall be and shall have been for at least three years enrolled members of the major political party in which the governor is not enrolled. In the event of a vacancy in a position previously appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor, the governor and lieutenant governor shall appoint a member of the same political party as the member that vacated that position. Prior to making their respective appointments, the governor and the lieutenant governor and the legislative leaders shall solicit and receive recommendations for appointees from the attorney general and the comptroller of the state of New York, which recommendations shall be fully and properly considered but shall not be binding.

No individual shall be eligible for appointment as a member of the commission who currently or within the last three years:

- (i) is or has been registered as a lobbyist in New York state;
- (ii) is or has been a member of the New York state legislature or a statewide elected official or a commissioner of an executive agency appointed by the governor; or
- (iii) is or has been a political party chairman, as defined in paragraph (k) of subdivision one of section seventy-three of this article.

No individual shall be eligible for appointment as a member of the commission who currently or within the last year is or has been a state officer or employee or legislative employee as defined in section seventy-three of the public officers law.

3. Members of the commission shall serve for terms of five years; provided, however, that of the members first appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor, one shall serve for one year, one shall serve for two years, one shall serve for three years, and one shall serve for four years, as designated by the governor; the members first appointed by the temporary president of the senate and by the speaker of the assembly shall serve for four years and the members first appointed by the minority leaders of the senate and the assembly shall serve for two years.
4. The governor shall designate the chairman of the commission from among the members thereof, who shall serve as chairman at the pleasure of the governor. The chairman or any eight members of the commission may call a meeting.
5. Any vacancy occurring on the commission shall be filled within thirty days of its occurrence in the same manner as the member whose vacancy is being filled was appointed. A person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring other than by expiration of a term of office shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member he or she succeeds.
6. Eight members of the commission shall constitute a quorum, and the commission shall have power to act by majority vote of the total number of members of the commission without vacancy except where the commission acts pursuant to subdivision thirteen, subdivision fourteen-a or subdivision fourteen-b of this section.

7. Members of the commission may be removed by the appointing authority solely for substantial neglect of duty, gross misconduct in office, violation of the confidentiality restrictions in subdivision nine-a of this section, inability to discharge the powers or duties of office or violation of this section, after written notice and opportunity for a reply.
8. The members of the joint commission shall receive a per diem allowance in the sum of three hundred dollars for each day actually spent in the performance of his or her duties under this article, and, in addition thereto, shall be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in the performance of his or her duties under this article.
9. The commission shall:
 - (a) Appoint an executive director who shall act in accordance with the policies of the commission. The appointment and removal of the executive director shall be made solely by a vote of a majority of the commission, which majority shall include at least one member appointed by the governor from each of the two major political parties, and one member appointed by a legislative leader from each of the two major political parties. The commission may delegate authority to the executive director to act in the name of the commission between meetings of the commission provided such delegation is in writing, the specific powers to be delegated are enumerated, and the commission shall not delegate any decisions specified in this section that require a vote of the commission. The executive director shall be appointed without regard to political affiliation and solely on the basis of fitness to perform the duties assigned by this article, and shall be a qualified, independent professional. The commission may remove the executive director for neglect of duty, misconduct in office, violation of the confidentiality restrictions in subdivision nine-a of this section, or inability or failure to discharge the powers or duties of office, including the failure to follow the lawful instructions of the commission;
 - (b) Appoint such other staff as are necessary to carry out its duties under this section;
 - (b-1) Review and approve a staffing plan provided and prepared by the executive director which shall contain, at a minimum, a list of the various units and divisions as well as the number of positions in each unit, titles and their duties, and salaries, as well as the various qualifications for each position including, but not limited to, education and prior experience for each position.
 - (c) Adopt, amend, and rescind rules and regulations to govern procedures of the commission, which shall include, but not be limited to, the procedure whereby a person who is required to file an annual financial disclosure statement with the commission may request an additional period of time within which to file such statement, other than members of the legislature, candidates for members of the legislature and legislative employees, due to justifiable cause or undue hardship; such rules or regulations shall provide for a date beyond which in all cases of justifiable cause or undue hardship no further extension of time will be granted;

- (d) Adopt, amend, and rescind rules and regulations to assist appointing authorities in determining which persons hold policy-making positions for purposes of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law;
- (d-1) Adopt, amend and rescind rules and regulations defining the permissible use of and promoting the proper use of public service announcements;
- (e) Make available forms for annual statements of financial disclosure required to be filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law;
- (f) Review financial disclosure statements in accordance with the provisions of this section, provided however, that the commission may delegate all or part of this review function to the executive director who shall be responsible for completing staff review of such statements in a manner consistent with the terms of the commission's delegation;
- (g) Receive complaints and referrals alleging violations of section seventy-three, seventy-three-a or seventy-four of the public officers law, article one-A of the legislative law or section one hundred seven of the civil service law;
- (h) Permit any person who is required to file a financial disclosure statement with the joint commission on public ethics to request that the commission delete from the copy thereof made available for public inspection and copying one or more items of information which may be deleted by the commission upon a finding by the commission that the information which would otherwise be required to be made available for public inspection and copying will have no material bearing on the discharge of the reporting person's official duties. If such request for deletion is denied, the commission, in its notification of denial, shall inform the person of his or her right to appeal the commission's determination pursuant to its rules governing adjudicatory proceedings and appeals adopted pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section;
- (i) Permit any person who is required to file a financial disclosure statement with the joint commission on public ethics to request an exemption from any requirement to report one or more items of information which pertain to such person's spouse or unemancipated children which item or items may be exempted by the commission upon a finding by the commission that the reporting individual's spouse, on his or her own behalf or on behalf of an unemancipated child, objects to providing the information necessary to make such disclosure and that the information which would otherwise be required to be reported will have no material bearing on the discharge of the reporting person's official duties. If such request for exemption is denied, the commission, in its notification of denial, shall inform the person of his or her right to appeal the commission's determination pursuant to its rules governing adjudicatory proceedings and appeals adopted pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section;

- (i-1) Permit any person required to file a financial disclosure statement to request an exemption from any requirement to report the identity of a client pursuant to question 8(b) in such statement based upon an exemption set forth in that question. The reporting individual need not seek an exemption to refrain from disclosing the identity of any client with respect to any matter he or she or his or her firm provided legal representation to the client in connection with an investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, or domestic relations matters; in addition, clients or customers receiving medical or dental services, mental health services, residential real estate brokering services, or insurance brokering services need not be disclosed.

- (j) Advise and assist any state agency in establishing rules and regulations relating to possible conflicts between private interests and official duties of present or former statewide elected officials and state officers and employees;

- (k) Permit any person who has not been determined by his or her appointing authority to hold a policy-making position but who is otherwise required to file a financial disclosure statement to request an exemption from such requirement in accordance with rules and regulations governing such exemptions. Such rules and regulations shall provide for exemptions to be granted either on the application of an individual or on behalf of persons who share the same job title or employment classification which the commission deems to be comparable for purposes of this section. Such rules and regulations may permit the granting of an exemption where, in the discretion of the commission, the public interest does not require disclosure and the applicant's duties do not involve the negotiation, authorization or approval of:
 - (i) contracts, leases, franchises, revocable consents, concessions, variances, special permits, or licenses as defined in section seventy-three of the public officers law;
 - (ii) the purchase, sale, rental or lease of real property, goods or services, or a contract therefor;
 - (iii) the obtaining of grants of money or loans; or
 - (iv) the adoption or repeal of any rule or regulation having the force and effect of law;

- (l) Prepare an annual report to the governor and legislature summarizing the activities of the commission during the previous year and recommending any changes in the laws governing the conduct of persons subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, or the rules, regulations and procedures governing the commission's conduct. Such report shall include: (i) a listing by assigned number of each complaint and referral received which alleged a possible violation within its jurisdiction, including the current status of each complaint, and (ii) where a matter has been resolved, the date and nature of the disposition and any sanction imposed, subject to the confidentiality requirements of this section, provided, however, that such annual report shall not contain any information for which disclosure is not permitted pursuant to subdivision nineteen of this section;

- (m) Determine a question common to a class or defined category of persons or items of information required to be disclosed, where determination of the question will prevent undue repetition of requests for exemption or deletion or prevent undue complication in complying with the requirements of such section; and
- (n) Promulgate guidelines for the commission to conduct a program of random reviews, to be carried out in the following manner: (i) annual statements of financial disclosure shall be selected for review in a manner pursuant to which the identity of any particular person whose statement is selected is unknown to the commission and its staff prior to its selection; (ii) such review shall include a preliminary examination of the selected statement for internal consistency, a comparison with other records maintained by the commission, including previously filed statements and requests for advisory opinions, and examination of relevant public information; (iii) upon completion of the preliminary examination, the commission shall determine whether further inquiry is warranted, whereupon it shall notify the reporting individual in writing that the statement is under review, advise the reporting individual of the specific areas of inquiry, and provide the reporting individual with the opportunity to provide any relevant information related to the specific areas of inquiry, and the opportunity to file amendments to the selected statement on forms provided by the commission; and (iv) if thereafter sufficient cause exists, the commission shall take additional actions, as appropriate and consistent with law.

9-a. (a) When an individual becomes a commissioner or staff of the commission, that individual shall be required to sign a non-disclosure statement.

(b) Except as otherwise required or provided by law, testimony received or any other information obtained by a commissioner or staff of the commission shall not be disclosed by any such individual to any person or entity outside the commission during the pendency of any matter. Any confidential communication to any person or entity outside the commission related to the matters before the commission may occur only as authorized by the commission.

(c) The commission shall establish procedures necessary to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of any information received by any member of the commission or staff of the commission. Any breaches of confidentiality shall be investigated by the inspector general and appropriate action shall be taken. Any commissioner or person employed by the commission who intentionally and without authorization releases confidential information received by the commission shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

9-b. During the period of his or her service as a commissioner of the commission, each commissioner shall refrain from making, or soliciting from other persons, any contributions to candidates for election to the offices of governor, lieutenant governor, member of the assembly or the senate, attorney general or state comptroller.

10. The commission shall prepare materials and design and administer an ethics training program for individuals subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law with respect to the provisions of sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a, and seventy-four of the public officers law and any other law, administrative regulation, or internal policy that is of relevance to the ethical conduct of such individuals in public service, as follows:
- (a) The commission shall develop and administer a comprehensive ethics training course and shall designate and train instructors to conduct such training. Such course shall be designed as a two-hour program and shall include practical application of the material covered and a question-and-answer participatory segment. Unless the commission grants an extension or waiver for good cause shown, all individuals subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law shall complete such course within two years of the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand eleven which amended this section, or for those individuals elected or appointed after the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand eleven which amended this section, within two years of becoming subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law.
 - (b) The commission shall develop and administer an online ethics orientation course and shall notify all individuals newly subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law of such course, which shall be completed by such individuals within three months of becoming subject to such requirements, unless the commission grants an extension or waiver for good cause shown. Individuals who have completed the comprehensive ethics training course shall not be required to complete the online ethics orientation course.
 - (c) The commission shall develop and administer an ethics seminar or ethics seminars for individuals who have previously completed the comprehensive ethics training course. Such seminars shall be designed as ninety-minute programs and shall include any changes in law, regulation, or policy or in the interpretation thereof, practical application of the material covered, and a question-and-answer segment. Unless the commission grants an extension or waiver for good cause shown, such individuals shall be scheduled to attend a seminar at least once every three years after having completed the comprehensive ethics training course. In lieu of attending an ethics seminar, such individuals may complete a subsequent comprehensive ethics training program.
 - (d) The provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable to the legislature except to the extent that an ethics training program is otherwise established by the assembly or senate for their respective members and employees and such program meets or exceeds each of the requirements set forth in this section.
 - (e) On an annual basis, the joint commission in coordination with the legislative ethics commission shall determine the status of compliance with these training requirements by each state agency and by the senate and the assembly. Such determination shall include aggregate statistics regarding participation in such training, and shall be reported to the governor and the legislature in writing.

11. The commission, or the executive director and staff of the commission if responsibility therefor has been delegated, shall inspect all financial disclosure statements filed with the commission to ascertain whether any person subject to the reporting requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law has failed to file such a statement, has filed a deficient statement or has filed a statement which reveals a possible violation of section seventy-three, seventy-three-a or seventy-four of the public officers law.
12. If a person required to file a financial disclosure statement with the commission has failed to file a disclosure statement or has filed a deficient statement, the commission shall notify the reporting person in writing, state the failure to file or detail the deficiency, provide the person with a fifteen day period to cure the deficiency, and advise the person of the penalties for failure to comply with the reporting requirements. Such notice shall be confidential. If the person fails to make such filing or fails to cure the deficiency within the specified time period, the commission shall send a notice of delinquency: (a) to the reporting person; (b) in the case of a statewide elected official, member of the legislature, or a legislative employee, to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly; and (c) in the case of a state officer or employee, to the appointing authority for such person. Such notice of delinquency may be sent at any time during the reporting person's service as a statewide elected official, state officer or employee, member of the assembly or the senate, or a legislative employee or a political party chair or while a candidate for statewide office, or within one year after termination of such service or candidacy. The jurisdiction of the commission, when acting pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section with respect to financial disclosure, shall continue notwithstanding that the reporting person separates from state service, or ceases to hold public or political party office, or ceases to be a candidate, provided the commission notifies such person of the alleged failure to file or deficient filing pursuant to this subdivision.
13. (a) Investigations. If the commission receives a sworn complaint alleging a violation of section seventy-three, seventy-three-a, or seventy-four of the public officers law, section one hundred seven of the civil service law or article one-A of the legislative law by a person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the commission including members of the legislature and legislative employees and candidates for member of the legislature, or if a reporting individual has filed a statement which reveals a possible violation of these provisions, or if the commission determines on its own initiative to investigate a possible violation, the commission shall notify the individual in writing, describe the possible or alleged violation of such laws, provide a description of the allegations against him or her and the evidence, if any, supporting such allegations, provided however that the joint commission shall redact any information that might, in the judgment of the commission, be prejudicial to either the complainant or the investigation; the letter also shall set forth the sections of law alleged to have been violated and provide the person with a fifteen day period in which to submit a written response, including any evidence, statements, and proposed witnesses, setting forth information relating to the activities cited as a possible or alleged violation of law. The commission shall, within sixty calendar days after a complaint or a referral is received or an investigation is initiated on the commission's own initiative, vote on whether to commence a full investigation of the matter under consideration to determine whether a substantial basis exists to conclude that a violation of law has occurred. The staff of the joint commission shall provide to the members prior to such vote information regarding the likely scope and content of the investigation, and a subpoena plan, to the extent such information is available. Such investigation shall be conducted if at least eight members of the commission vote to authorize it. Where the subject of such investigation is a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or a candidate for member of the legislature, at least two of the eight or more members who so vote to authorize such an investigation must have been appointed by a legislative leader or leaders from the major political party in which the subject of the proposed investigation is enrolled if such person is enrolled in a major political party. Where the subject of such investigation is a state officer or state employee, at least two of the eight or more members who so vote to authorize such an investigation must have been appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor. Where the subject of such investigation is a statewide elected official or a direct appointee of such an official, at least two of the eight or more members who so vote to authorize such an investigation must have been appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor and be enrolled in the major political party in which the subject of the proposed investigation is enrolled, if such person is enrolled in a major political party.

(b) Substantial basis investigation. Upon the affirmative vote of not less than eight commission members to commence a substantial basis investigation, written notice of the commission's decision shall be provided to the individual who is the subject of such substantial basis investigation. Such written notice shall include a copy of the commission's rules and procedures and shall also include notification of such individual's right to be heard within thirty calendar days of the date of the commission's written notice. If the commission votes to commence a substantial basis investigation, the commission shall provide to the individual a notice setting forth the alleged violations of law and the factual basis for those allegations. The commission shall provide to the individual any additional evidence supporting the allegations not set forth in the letter sent pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision in sufficient detail to enable the individual to respond, at least seven days before the hearing. Such hearing shall afford the individual with a reasonable opportunity to appear in person, and by attorney, give sworn testimony and present evidence. Such hearing shall occur before the commission votes on whether or not to issue a substantial basis report. The commission shall also inform the individual of its rules regarding the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals and the other due process procedural mechanisms available to such individual. If the commission determines at any stage that there is no violation, that any potential violation has been rectified, or if the investigation is closed for any other reason, it shall so advise the individual and the complainant, if any in writing within fifteen days of such decision. All of the foregoing proceedings shall be confidential.

(c) The jurisdiction of the commission when acting pursuant to this section shall continue notwithstanding that a statewide elected official or a state officer or employee or member of the legislature or legislative employee separates from state service, or a political party chair ceases to hold such office, or a candidate ceases to be a candidate, or a lobbyist or client of a lobbyist ceases to act as such, provided that the commission notifies such individual or entity of the alleged violation of law pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision within one year from his or her separation from state service or his or her termination of party service or candidacy, or from his, her or its last report filed pursuant to article one-A of the legislative law. Nothing in this section shall serve to limit the jurisdiction of the commission in enforcement of subdivision eight of section seventy-three of the public officers law.

14. An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of subdivisions two through five-a, seven, eight, twelve or fourteen through seventeen of section seventy-three of the public officers law, section one hundred seven of the civil service law, or a reporting individual who knowingly and willfully fails to file an annual statement of financial disclosure or who knowingly and willfully with intent to deceive makes a false statement or fraudulent omission or gives information which such individual knows to be false on such statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed forty thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation. An individual who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of paragraph a, b, c, d, e, g, or i of subdivision three of section seventy-four of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation. An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who knowingly and willfully violates article one-A of the legislative law shall be subject to civil penalty as provided for in that article. Except with respect to members of the legislature and legislative employees, assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the commission with respect to persons subject to its jurisdiction. With respect to a violation of any law other than sections seventy-three, seventy-three- a, and seventy-four of the public officers law, where the commission finds sufficient cause by a vote held in the same manner as set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision thirteen of this section, it shall refer such matter to the appropriate prosecutor for further investigation. In assessing the amount of the civil penalties to be imposed, the commission shall consider the seriousness of the violation, the amount of gain to the individual and whether the individual previously had any civil or criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, and any other factors the commission deems appropriate. Except with respect to members of the legislature and legislative employees, for a violation of this subdivision, other than for conduct which constitutes a violation of section one hundred seven of the civil service law, subdivisions twelve or fourteen through seventeen of section seventy-three or section seventy-four of the public officers law or article one-A of the legislative law, the commission may, in lieu of or in addition to a civil penalty, refer a violation to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such conviction, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported information is falsely understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for a failure to file, or for a false filing, of such statement, or a violation of subdivision six of section seventy-three of the public officers law, except that the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The commission may refer violations of this subdivision to the appointing authority for disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The commission shall be deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article three of the state administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals taken pursuant to a proceeding commenced under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules relating to the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized and commission denials of requests for certain deletions or exemptions to be made from a financial disclosure statement as authorized in paragraph (h) or paragraph (i) of subdivision nine of this section. Such rules, which shall not be subject to the approval requirements of the state administrative procedure act, shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in article three of the state administrative procedure act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil penalty or commission denial of such a request shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of imposition, with respect to the assessment of such penalty, or unless such denial of request is reversed within such time period, and upon becoming final shall be subject to review at the instance of the affected reporting individuals in a proceeding commenced against the commission, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

- 14-a. The joint commission on public ethics shall have jurisdiction to investigate, but shall have no jurisdiction to impose penalties upon members of or candidates for member of the legislature or legislative employees for any violation of the public officers law. If, after its substantial basis investigation, by a vote of at least eight members, two of whom are enrolled members of the investigated individual's political party if the individual is enrolled in a major political party and were appointed by a legislative leader of such political party, the joint commission on public ethics has found a substantial basis to conclude that a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or candidate for member of the legislature has violated any provisions of such laws, it shall present a written report to the legislative ethics commission, and deliver a copy of the report to the individual who is the subject of the report. Such written report shall include:
- (a) the commission's findings of fact and any evidence addressed in such findings; conclusions of law and citations to any relevant law, rule, opinion, regulation or standard of conduct upon which it relied; and
 - (b) a determination that a substantial basis exists to conclude that a violation has occurred, and the reasons and basis for such determination.

The joint commission shall also separately provide to the legislative ethics commission copies of additional documents or other evidence considered including evidence that may contradict the joint commission's findings, the names of and other information regarding any additional witnesses, and any other materials. With respect to a violation of any law other than sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a, and seventy-four of the public officers law, where the joint commission finds sufficient cause by a vote held in the same manner as set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision thirteen of this section, it shall refer such matter to the appropriate prosecutor.

- 14-b. With respect to the investigation of any individual who is not a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or candidate for member of the legislature, if after its investigation the joint commission has found a substantial basis to conclude that the individual has violated the public officers law or the legislative law, the joint commission shall send a substantial basis investigation report containing its findings of fact and conclusions of law to the individual. With respect to an individual who is a statewide elected official or a direct appointee of such an official, no violation may be found unless the majority voting in support of such a finding includes at least two members appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor and enrolled in the individual's major political party, if he or she is enrolled in a major political party. Where the subject of such investigation is a state officer or employee who is not a direct appointee of a statewide elected official, at least two of the eight or more members who vote to issue a substantial basis investigation report must have been appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor. The commission shall release such report publicly within forty-five days of its issuance.
- 14-c. With respect to an investigation of a lobbyist, if after its investigation the joint commission has found a substantial basis to conclude that the lobbyist has violated the legislative law, the joint commission shall issue a substantial basis investigation report containing its findings of fact and conclusions of law to the lobbyist and shall make public such report within forty-five days of its issuance.
15. A copy of any notice of delinquency or substantial basis investigation report shall be included in the reporting person's file and be available for public inspection and copying pursuant to the provisions of this section.
16. Upon written request from any person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission and the requirements of sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a or seventy-four of the public officers law, other than members of the legislature, candidates for member of the legislature and employees of the legislature, the commission shall render written advisory opinions on the requirements of said provisions. An opinion rendered by the commission, until and unless amended or revoked, shall be binding on the commission in any subsequent proceeding concerning the person who requested the opinion and who acted in good faith, unless material facts were omitted or misstated by the person in the request for an opinion. Such opinion may also be relied upon by such person, and may be introduced and shall be a defense, in any criminal or civil action. Such requests shall be confidential but the commission may publish such opinions provided that the name of the requesting person and other identifying details shall not be included in the publication.

17. In addition to any other powers and duties specified by law, the commission shall have the power and duty to:
- (a) Promulgate rules concerning restrictions on outside activities and limitations on the receipt of gifts and honoraria by persons subject to its jurisdiction, provided, however, a violation of such rules in and of itself shall not be punishable pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section unless the conduct constituting the violation would otherwise constitute a violation of this section; and
 - (b) Administer and enforce all the provisions of this section; and
 - (c) Conduct any investigation necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Pursuant to this power and duty, the commission may administer oaths or affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance and require the production of any books or records which it may deem relevant or material;
18. Within one hundred twenty days of the effective date of this subdivision, the commission shall create and thereafter maintain a publicly accessible website which shall set forth the procedure for filing a complaint with the commission, and which shall contain the documents identified in subdivision nineteen of this section, other than financial disclosure statements filed by state officers or employees or legislative employees, and any other records or information which the commission determines to be appropriate.
19. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of article six of the public officers law, the only records of the commission which shall be available for public inspection and copying are:
- (1) the information set forth in an annual statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law except information deleted pursuant to paragraph (h) of subdivision nine of this section;
 - (2) notices of delinquency sent under subdivision twelve of this section;
 - (3) notices of civil assessments imposed under this section which shall include a description of the nature of the alleged wrongdoing, the procedural history of the complaint, the findings and determinations made by the commission, and any sanction imposed;
 - (4) the terms of any settlement or compromise of a complaint or referral which includes a fine, penalty or other remedy;
 - (5) those required to be held or maintained publicly available pursuant to article one-A of the legislative law; and
 - (6) substantial basis investigation reports issued by the commission pursuant to subdivision fourteen-a or fourteen-b of this section. With respect to reports concerning members of the legislature or legislative employees or candidates for member of the legislature, the joint commission shall not publicly disclose or otherwise disseminate such reports except in conformance with the requirements of paragraph of subdivision nine of section eighty of the legislative law.
- (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of article seven of the public officers law, no meeting or proceeding, including any such proceeding contemplated under paragraph (h) or (i) of subdivision nine of this section, of the commission shall be open to the public, except if expressly provided otherwise by the commission or as is required by article one-A of the legislative law.

(c) Pending any application for deletion or exemption to the commission, all information which is the subject or a part of the application shall remain confidential. Upon an adverse determination by the commission, the reporting individual may request, and upon such request the commission shall provide, that any information which is the subject or part of the application remain confidential for a period of thirty days following notice of such determination. In the event that the reporting individual resigns his office and holds no other office subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, the information shall not be made public and shall be expunged in its entirety.

20. If any part or provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or organization is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such judgment shall not affect or impair any other part or provision or the application thereof to any other person or organization, but shall be confined in its operation to such part or provision.
